Pac-12 Networks

Headquartered in San Francisco's SOMA district, Pac-12 Networks is the new content and multiplatform media company of the Pac-12 Conference, a leader in collegiate athletics that is made up of 12 of the most prestigious universities in the world.

Pac-12 Networks was created in 2011 to develop and launch one national and six regional full-time native HD linear networks available to video programming operators, as well as a network of digital properties dedicated solely to the Pac-12. The linear networks televise hundreds of live sporting events annually and provide 24/7 access to Pac-12 teams and universities.

The Pac-12 digital platform includes Pac-12.com, the official athletic websites of member universities, mobile applications, social media and other innovative digital initiatives across the company.

As part of the Conference's globalization initiative, Pac-12 Networks plans to extend Pac-12 programming to international audiences, especially in the Pacific Rim, where the Conference already enjoys wide recognition for the quality of its athletic competition and for the prestige of its member universities' academic and research programs.

Wholly owned by the 12 member institutions of the Pac-12 Conference, Pac-12 Networks is committed to diversity and gender equality in the workplace. We encourage applications from women and people of diverse ethnic, racial and cultural backgrounds. Pac-12 Networks is proud to be an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Arizona On Air

IMG, with Cumulus Broadcasting Company, uses KCUB 1290AM in Tucson as the flagship station for originating radio broadcasts, augmented by KCUB's 100,000-watt sister FM station, KHYT 107.5FM, in Southern Arizona. Additionally, IMG partnered with Lotus' KTKT 990AM ESPN Deportes in 2007 to originate Spanish-language radio broadcasts for select football, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball and softball games.

Arizona's director of broadcasting, Brian Jeffries has served as the voice of the Wildcats in game broadcasts of UA football, basketball and baseball since Arizona's 1986 Aloha Bowl football appearance. During the 2004 season, former UA running back Lamont Lovett began his color analyst career on the football broadcasts.

Media Policies and Procedures

Media Information

Molly O'Mara and Blair Willis of Arizona Athletics Communication Services will assist media throughout the season in its coverage of Arizona football including issuing a weekly news release, daily news items, home game statistical packages, administering news conferences, practice and press box operations, credentialing and road-game access, among other services. Any questions about media policies should be directed to Associate Director of Communication Services Molly O'Mara at momara@arizona.edu or (520) 621-4283.

Practice

Coverage of football practice stipulates consent with restrictions on reporting formations, strategies, special personnel shifts or injuries without prior questions directed to and answered by head coach Rich Rodriguez.

Credentials

Credentials will be issued to professional members of media outlets that regularly cover Arizona Athletics and to regional, national or visiting professional journalists. Internet entities may or may not qualify for credentials and will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Usage

Usage of imagery, audio and video taken at Arizona Athletics events is restricted to editorial purposes; these guidelines are covered in materials issued to reporters, editors and photographers upon receipt of credentials and/or access. They include guidelines on live Internet reporting, notably live description of statistical and/or play-by-play and uses of visual imagery, rules strengthened for televised games.

Facilities Access for Media

The team locker room, sports medicine center and strength and conditioning center are off limits to media unless special arrangements have been made through Molly O'Mara.

2014 Arizona Football Media Guide

2014 Outlook

Conference	Pac-12
Southern Division	Arizona, ASU, Colorado, UCLA, USC, Utah
Northern Division	California, Oregon, Oregon State, Stanford, Washington, Washington State
Nickname	Wildcats
Colors	Cardinal and Navy (PMS 200 and 281)
Stadium (Capacity), Field	Arizona Stadium (56,029), FieldTurf
Returning Lettermen	45
Head Coach	Rich Rodriguez, Third Year (16-10)
Offensive Formation	Multiple Spread
Defensive Formation	3-3-5

The Rich Rodriguez era continues in 2014 when the Wildcats look to build on their 16-10 record and back-to-back bowl wins in his first two seasons at the helm of the program. An innovator of the hurry up, no huddle, spread offense, Rodriguez and his staff have assembled a squad for 2014 that looks to carry on the excitement and culture that has been in the works for the past 24 months. This season looks to be a stepping stone towards building a concrete and complete program here in the Old Pueblo.

OFFENSE

The Wildcats' offense, stout and dangerous in 2012 and 2013, will have a different look to it in 2014. Charged with replacing quarterback B.J. Denker and all-time leading rusher Ka'Deem Carey, Rodriguez will look to position groups that have virtually no in-game experience. A solid summer of conditioning and skill development, coupled with a strong showing in fall camp, will hopefully produce two players ready and able to take over at critical skill positions.

At quarterback, the Wildcats repped 7-8 players during spring ball and will look to narrow that down to four for fall camp. In the mix are Texas-transfer sophomore Connor Brewer, JUCO-transfer junior Jerrard Randall, senior Jesse Scroggins (USC/El Camino College) and redshirt freshman Anu Solomon.

Luckily for whoever is named starting signal caller, the 2014 receiving corps is ready and willing. A familiar face is back in the fold in senior receiver Austin Hill. He missed 2013 with a knee injury but is back for 2014 with a chip on his shoulder and something to prove. Two years ago, he totaled 81 catches for 1,364 yards and 11 touchdowns to lead the Wildcat receivers while ranking No. 2 in the Pac-12 in total receiving yards (1,364) and yards per game (104.9).

Hill will lead a group of receivers that most consider the best in the country. He's joined by a pair of sophomore transfers, Cayleb Jones (Texas) and DaVonte' Neal (Notre Dame), who will add instant depth at the position. The trio is joined by junior David Richards and sophomores Trey Griffey, Nate Phillips and Samajie Grant.

In 2013, Phillips was a FWAA Freshman All-American and All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention. He hauled in 51 receptions for 696 yards and seven touchdowns to lead the squad in both categories. In the AdvoCare V100 Bowl victory over Boston College, he collected nine receptions and totaled 193 yards, the most ever by a true freshman in school history and the yardage total is 11th-most in single-game history.

Griffey also had a breakthrough performance in Shreveport. He caught two touchdowns, including the first of his career. Freshman speedster Tyrell Johnson will also add ability to the group.

Enormous shoes were left to fill when Carey declared for the NFL Draft. During spring practices, redshirt freshman Zach Green and senior Terris Jones-Grigsby took a majority of the reps at running back while junior Jared Baker was out while rehabbing a knee injury.

While the skill position personnel has yet to sort itself out, a veteran offensive line is in position to block for an offense that's averaged 458.5 (2013) and 526.2 (2012) yards per game the last two seasons. Arizona returns four of its five starters from 2013 (104 career starts total) with nine underclassmen filling out the depth chart. The group blocked for Arizona to average 264.9 rushing yards per game and allowed just 1.31 sacks per game in 2013, both figures ranked second in the Pac-12.

Mickey Baucus (left) and Fabbians Ebbele (right) have been consistent bookends for the line while Steven Gurrola, a member of the 2014 Rimington Trophy Watch List, was a consistent anchor in 2013. Look to redshirt juniors Lene Maiava and Fantele Faafoi to fill holes and provide relief as both have in-game and starting experience.

DEFENSE

Under Jeff Casteel's direction, Arizona's total defense improved by nearly 100 yards per game (fifth-most improved defense in the country), giving up 499 yards per game in 2012 to 401.1 yards per game in 2013. The Wildcats have seen an improvement of 1.3 yards per play, 1.8 yards per pass and 0.6 yards per rush.

Depth has been a common theme for the Wildcat defense over the last two seasons. It changes some for 2014, where depth is stronger in the secondary and slightly weaker on the line. The Cats looks to replace seniors Jake Fischer, Marquis Flowers, Sione Tuihalamaka and Tevis Hood, who combined for 121 career starts.

Up front, Reggie Gilbert leads a group that has seen consistent improvement from year one to year two. He brings 21 career starts, including all 13 games in 2013. He's joined by upperclassmen Dan Pettinato and Dwight Melvin. Senior transfer Jordan Allen adds instant depth and playing experience after three seasons at LSU. Calvin Allen, Jack Banda, Luca Bruno and Parker Zellers spent their true freshmen seasons working with the scout team to develop their skills and improve their nose for the ball.

2014 Arizona Football Media Guide

At linebacker, sophomore Scooby Wright will be looked upon to lead in a manner mature beyond his years. He played in all 13 games and started 12 at same linebacker in 2013 and went on to earn Freshman All-America honors by 247sports.com and second-team Freshman All-America by Athlon Sports. He was named All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention with 83 tackles to rank No. 3 among the Wildcats and No. 2 among Pac-12 freshmen.

Alongside Wright, true freshmen Jake Matthews, DeAndre' Miller and Derrick Turituri also saw quite a bit of playing time. Joined with letterwinners Keoni Bush-Loo, Hank Hobson and Sir Thomas Jackson, the Cats have contenders at linebacker.

In total, the cornerbacks and the safeties are comprised of seven seniors and four juniors, one of Arizona's deepest positions. Last season, the Wildcats had five INT returns for touchdowns, tied for most among FBS teams. UA intercepted 18 passes in 2013, its most in a single campaign since totaling 16 in 2008.

The corners are led by seniors Jonathan McKnight and Jourdon Grandon, who also takes on a free safety roll. McKnight broke up a team-leading eight passes to go with his 54 tackles. Senior Brendan Murphy and sophomore Devin Holiday also have in-game experience.

The "spurs" and "bandits" play a hybrid safety/linebacker position with seniors Tra'Mayne Bondurant and Jared Tevis, who combine for 52 career starts and 368 career tackles. Bondurant picked off four interceptions for 79 return yards and two touchdowns in 2013.

Juniors William Parks and Anthony Lopez and sophomore Tellas Jones also saw significant playing time at the position last season. Physical and quick, Parks was named the AdvoCare V100 Bowl Defensive MVP after his 69-yard interception return for a touchdown in Arizona's 42-19 victory.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Arizona welcomes and returns some key roles on the special teams units. Drew Riggleman is back to punt while Casey Skowron and Jack Flatau will look to replace Jake Smith as place kicker.

The return game will drastically improve with the addition of the speedy receivers Neal and Johnson. Junior Johnny Jackson has also returned punts while the Wildcats saw five different players return kicks in 2013, with four of those returning this year.

Fierce special teams blockers Jones-Grigsby, T. Jones and Trevor Ermisch are back for 2014. They combined for 29 tackles last season. Senior Chase Gorham is expected to handle long snapping as Arizona looks to replace Brian Chacon for placekicking snapping.

SCHEDULE

Arizona, coming off an 8-5 record and an AdvoCare V100 Independence Bowl win in 2013, will host seven home games at Arizona Stadium and travel for five road games in 2014. The 2014 slate features seven teams that played in a bowl game during the 2013 season.

Arizona opens on Fri., Aug. 29 vs. UNLV. In 2013, the Rebels were 7-6 overall and 5-3 in Mountain West Conference play after falling to North Texas, 36-14, in the Heart of Dallas Bowl. The Wildcats travel to San Antonio, Texas to face UTSA at the Alamodome on Thurs., Sept. 4. The Roadrunners were 7-5 overall and 6-2 in Conference USA action.

Non-conference play closes hosting Nevada on Sat., Sept. 13. The WolfPack were 4-8 overall and 3-5 in MWC play in 2013. Pac-12 play begins with Arizona hosting California on Sat., Sept. 20. The Bears were 1-11 in 2013. Arizona finds its first bye week on Sat., Sept. 27.

UA will travel to play at Oregon on Thurs., Oct. 2 for its first weekday game of 2014. The Ducks were 11-2 overall in 2013 and won the Alamo Bowl. October continues for the Cats hosting USC (10-4, Las Vegas Bowl Champions in 2013) on Oct. 11 for Family Weekend.

After a bye week on Oct. 18, Arizona will travel to Washington State on Oct. 25. The Cougars finished 2013 at 6-7 and played in the New Mexico Bowl.

Arizona opens November with a game at UCLA on Nov. 1. The Bruins won the Sun Bowl and finished last season with a record of 10-3. The Wildcats will host Colorado (4-8 in 2013) on Nov. 8 for Homecoming and Washington (9-4, Fight Hunger Bowl Champions in 2013) on Nov. 15. The road trips conclude with a trip to Utah (5-7 in 2013) on Nov. 22.

The Cats close the season with the annual Territorial Cup game, hosting Arizona State on Friday, Nov. 28. The 1:30 p.m. MST kick will air nationally on FOX. Arizona will look to finish the season above .500 to compete in its sixth bowl game in the last seven years.

2014 Arizona Football Media Guide

Rich Rodriguez
Head Coach

Year in Coaching: 30th
Year at Arizona: Third

Rich Rodriguez enters his third season as head coach of the Arizona football program. He was introduced as Arizona's 30th head coach on Nov. 22, 2011.

Entering the 2014 season, Rodriguez carries a career record of 136-94-2 in 20 seasons, marked by Division I records of 60-26 at West Virginia, 15-22 at Michigan and 16-10 with the Wildcats. He began his head coaching career at Salem University (W.Va.) in 1988 and then coached at Glenville State (W.Va.) from 1990-96.

In Rodriguez's second season, the Wildcats again posted an 8-5 record with a bowl victory over the Boston College Eagles in the AdvoCare V100 Bowl in Shreveport, La. Arizona also knocked off a top-10 ranked team for the second-straight season with a 42-16 win over No. 5 Oregon on Nov. 23.

Running back Ka'Deem Carey earned consensus All-America honors for the second-straight season, was named the 2013 Pac-12 offensive Player of the Year and a Doak Walker Award finalist. He ended his three seasons in Tucson as Arizona's all-time career rushing leader (4,239 yards) and all-time all-purpose yardage leader (5,483). Carey recorded 16-straight games in which he eclipsed the century mark rushing, the longest streak in Pac-12 history and the longest for any FBS player in the last 10 seasons.

Senior B.J. Denker threw for 2,516 yards, completing 233 of 381 attempts with just seven interceptions, and connected on 16 scores to eight different receivers. Showing his versatility, Denker also rushed for 949 yards on 181 attempts with 13 scores. Against Colorado, he amassed 457 yards of total offense (265 passing, 192 rushing), the sixth-highest single-game output in school history and a school record for rushing yards in a game by a quarterback.

The 2012 season proved successful for Arizona in Rodriguez's spread-offense, no-huddle system. The Cats beat No. 10 USC, 39-36, on Oct. 27 en route to an 8-5 season and a win over Nevada in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl. Carey led the nation in total rushing yards (1,929) and yards per game (148.38) while rewriting the Arizona record book. For his efforts, Carey was named first-team All-Pac-12 and a consensus All-American, UA's first on the offensive side of the ball.

Rodriguez inherited a fifth-year senior in quarterback Matt Scott who was perfectly suited to run the Wildcat offense. With Scott as signal caller, Arizona was 7-5 as he orchestrated come-from-behind wins against No. 10 USC and Nevada in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl. Earning second-team All-Pac-12 honors, Scott led the conference in yards per game with 301.7 and ranked No. 2 in the league in total yardage.

Austin Hill totaled 81 catches for 1,364 yards and 11 touchdowns to lead the Wildcat receivers in 2012. He was named a Biletnikoff Award semifinalist, second-team All-Pac-12 and fourth-team All-America by Phil Steele. He ranked No. 2 in the Pac-12 in total receiving yards and yards per game (104.9).

UA lead the Pac-12 in total offense for four-straight weeks (weeks 6-9) and ranked as high as fourth nationally in weeks three, seven and nine. Arizona's offensive triple-threat attack featured a 3,000-yard passer (Scott - 3,620 yards), a 1,500-yard rusher (Carey - 1,929 yards) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Hill - 1,364 yards).

In defensive coordinator Jeff Casteel's 3-3-5 defense, Arizona was led by linebacker Jake Fischer, an All-Pac-12 honorable mention and CoSIDA Academic All-District honoree. Fischer ranked third in the Pac-12 in total tackles with 76 and 9.2 per game. Cornerback Shaquille Richardson ranked fourth in the league and No. 16 nationally in passes broken up with 14. Safety Jared Tevis also earned All-Pac-12 honorable mention nods.

Rodriguez served as a football analyst for CBS Sports during the 2011 season. Previously, Rodriguez was head coach at Michigan from 2008 to 2010 and made a Division I statement as head coach at West Virginia from 2001-07, where he compiled a 60-26 record and won four Big East Conference titles.

Rodriguez's West Virginia teams were Big East Champions in 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2007 while appearing in two BCS bowls, the 2005 Sugar Bowl with a victory over Georgia for an 11-1 record and a victory over Oklahoma in the 2007 Fiesta Bowl to finish 10-2 shortly after Rodriguez had left for Michigan. His 2006 club finished 11-2 after a victory over Georgia Tech in the Gator Bowl. He also coached the Mountaineers to the 2002 Continental Tire Bowl and the 2003 and 2004 Gator Bowls.

Prior to accepting the West Virginia job in late November 2000, Rodriguez served as offensive coordinator and associate head coach for Tommy Bowden at Clemson in 1999 and 2000, with the Tigers recording a 15-9 record in two seasons. He was offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Bowden at Tulane for two years prior to that, 1997-98, when he helped lead the Green Wave to a 19-4 mark, including an undefeated 12-0 season with the Conference USA Champs and Liberty Bowl victors in 1998.

At Glenville State, his teams won or shared four consecutive West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference titles and he was named WVIAC Coach of the Year in 1993 and 1994, as well as the NAIA Coach of the Year after leading his team to a national runner-up finish. He also was recognized by the West Virginia Sports Writers Association as the state College Coach of the Year for all sports in 1993. He led the Pioneers to the national playoffs twice and posted a 43-28-2 record. He also served as Glenville's AD in 1995-96 and was inducted into its Hall of Fame in 2003.

While at Salem, he was a secondary coach and special teams coordinator in 1986 and assistant head coach and defensive coordinator in 1987. He was the youngest head coach in college football when appointed by Salem in 1988 at age 24. The school disbanded its football program the next year and he served as a volunteer assistant at West Virginia working with outside linebackers in 1989.

Rodriguez graduated from West Virginia in 1986, where he started as a walk-on in 1981 and became a three-year letterwinner as a defensive back from 1982-84. He added a master's degree from Salem in 1987. He is a native of Grant Town, W. Va., and graduated from North Marion High School. Rodriguez and his wife, Rita, have two children, Raquel and Rhett.

Calvin Magee
Associate Head Coach/
Co-Offensive Coordinator/Running Backs

Year in Coaching: 25th
Year at Arizona: Third

In his third season with the Wildcats, Magee joined the Arizona staff on Dec. 7, 2011 as Arizona's associate head coach, co-offensive coordinator and running backs coach. He's been a successful coordinator of spread-option running attacks for head coach Rich Rodriguez at a number of stops.

Ka'Deem Carey once again paced the Wildcats and anchored an offense that posted an 8-5 record and a second-straight bowl win (AdvoCare V100 Bowl). He was a consensus All-American again in 2013, a Doak Walker Award finalist and the 2013 Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year. Carey departed as Arizona's all-time career rushing leader (4,239 yards) and all-time all-purpose yardage leader (5,483). He finished the season with 1,885 yards (No. 3 nationally) on 349 carries and 19 touchdowns while averaging 157.1 yards per game (No. 2 nationally) and 29.08 carries per game (No. 1 nationally). Carey recorded 16-straight games in which he eclipsed the century mark rushing, the longest streak in Pac-12 history and the longest for any FBS player in the last 10 seasons.

2012 was a banner year for the Wildcat offense. Carey led the nation in total rushing yards (1,929) and yards per game (148.38) while rewriting the Arizona record book. For his efforts, Carey was named first-team All-Pac-12 and a consensus All-American, UA's first on the offensive side of the ball.

UA lead the Pac-12 in total offense for four-straight weeks (weeks 6-9) and ranked as high as fourth nationally in weeks three, seven and nine. Arizona's offensive triple-threat attack featured a 3,000-yard passer (Matt Scott - 3,620 yards), a 1,500-yard rusher (Carey - 1,929 yards) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Austin Hill - 1,364 yards).

During the 2011 season, Magee served as assistant head coach and co-offensive coordinator at Pittsburgh. With more than 20 years in coaching, he has been on the sidelines for 10 bowl games.

Magee coached for Rodriguez for three years at Michigan (2008-10) and for seven years at West Virginia (2001-07). He was associate head coach, offensive coordinator and running backs coach at Michigan, and coached running backs throughout his tenure in Morgantown while adding the coordinator post his final three seasons and assistant head coach his last year at West Virginia.

He began his college coaching career at South Florida where he coached tight ends (1996), running backs (1999-00) and served as running game coordinator the final two years.

Magee was an All-American tight end at Southern University, earning first-team honors in 1983 and 1984. He led the Jaguars each of his four seasons (1981-84) and was MVP of the 1985 Freedom Bowl. He was a three-time All-Southwestern Athletic Conference selection. He was inducted into the Southern University Hall of Fame in 2000.

Following his playing tenure at Southern, he had a five-year stint in the National Football League with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1985-89).

A native of New Orleans, Magee earned a bachelor's degree from South Florida in 1990. He and his wife, Rosie, have two daughters, Jade and Jasmine, a son, Bryson, and two grandsons.

Rod Smith
Co-Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Year in Coaching: 17th
Year at Arizona: Third

Rod Smith enters his third season with the Wildcats, serving on head coach Rich Rodriguez's staff as co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He joined the staff in December 2011 following one season in the same position at Indiana.

Under Smith's guidance, fifth-year senior B.J. Denker started and played all 13 games at quarterback in 2013 after playing in six games in 2012. He threw for 2,516 yards, completing 233 of 381 attempts with just seven interceptions. He threw for 16 scores to eight different receivers and averaged 193.5 passing yards per game with a long of 60 yards to Terrence Miller in Arizona's road win at California.

Denker also rushed for 949 yards on 181 attempts with 13 scores and recorded a long carry of 54 yards in the Wildcats' road win at Colorado. Also against the Buffs, he amassed 457 yards of total offense (265 passing, 192 rushing), the sixth-highest single-game output in school history, and totaled 192 yards, a school record for rushing yards in a game by a quarterback.

In 2012, Smith inherited a fifth-year senior in quarterback Matt Scott who was perfectly suited to run the Wildcat offense. With Scott as signal caller, Arizona was 7-5 as he orchestrated come-from-behind wins against No. 10 USC and Nevada in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl. Earning second-team All-Pac-12 honors, Scott led the conference in yards per game with 301.7 and ranked No. 2 in the league in total yardage.

UA led the Pac-12 in total offense for four straight weeks (weeks 6-9) and ranked as high as fourth nationally in weeks three, seven and nine. Arizona's offensive triple-threat attack featured a 3,000-yard passer (Scott - 3,620 yards), a 1,500-yard rusher (Ka'Deem Carey - 1,929 yards) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Austin Hill - 1,364 yards).

Smith coached quarterbacks under Rodriguez at Michigan from 2008 to 2010 and one season under Rodriguez at West Virginia in 2007. He helped develop two of the most explosive signal callers in Rodriguez' offensive system, WVU's Pat White and Michigan's Denard Robinson. Additionally, he has coached in seven bowl games.

Smith was offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at South Florida in 2005 and 2006 after starting on the staff there as passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2001.

Smith began his coaching career as offensive coordinator at Franklin High School in West Virginia (1997) before joining the college ranks as offensive coordinator at Urbana University (Ohio) (1998-99) and offensive coordinator at West Virginia Tech (2000).

He also spent time as a graduate assistant at Clemson in 2001, working with offensive coordinator Rodriguez and relocated with Rodriguez as a graduate assistant member of the coach's initial staff at WVU for a few months before taking a full-time position at USF.

He played under Rodriguez as a quarterback at Glenville State from 1993-96, where he earned his undergraduate degree in 1997. He was an All-American and team captain his senior year.

Smith received a master's degree from Urbana University (Ohio) in 2000. He and his wife, Charlene, have a son, Alex, and a daughter, Sasha.

Jeff Casteel Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

Year in Coaching: 31st
Year at Arizona: Third

Veteran defensive coordinator Jeff Casteel is in his third season as a member of the Arizona staff under head coach Rich Rodriguez. He also coaches the Wildcat linebackers.

He has more than 30 years of coaching experience and was Rivals' 2007 Defensive Coordinator of the Year and its 2008 Big East Coordinator of the Year. He has coached in 13 bowl games.

Arizona's total defense improved by nearly 100 yards per game (fifth-most improved defense in the country), giving up 499 yards per game in 2012 to 401.1 yards per game in 2013. The Wildcats had five INT returns for touchdowns, tied for most among FBS teams in 2013. UA intercepted 18 passes in 2013, its most in a single campaign since totaling 16 in 2008.

The Wildcats defeated then-No. 5 Oregon on Nov. 23, 2013. Arizona's defense held the Ducks to less than 200 yards rushing. Prior to Oregon's loss at Stanford on Nov. 7, 2013, the last time an Oregon player did not rush for 100 yards was at home vs. Arizona on Sept. 22, 2012. UA's defense held Oregon to its lowest point total of the season (16) and the lowest since Nov. 17, 2012, against Stanford (14-17 loss). UA's defense limited Oregon to 1-for-5 on third down conversion attempts in the first half. The Ducks finished 6-for-12 but were 1-for-3 on fourth-down attempts.

True freshman linebacker Scooby Wright turned in a sterling rookie campaign as a starter. He finished the season with 83 total tackles, a tally that ranked second-most nationally among all true freshman defenders. For the second-straight season, Jake Fischer paced the Wildcats in total tackles with 99. In his final campaign, he scored a touchdown on a 49-yard interception return at UNLV and posted a career-high 14 tackles in UA's upset win over No. 5 Oregon.

In 2012, Arizona's defense was led by Fischer, an All-Pac-12 honorable mention and CoSIDA Academic All-District honoree. Fischer ranked third in the Pac-12 in total tackles with 76 and 9.2 per game. Cornerback Shaquille Richardson ranked fourth in the league and No. 16 nationally in passes broken up with 14. Safety Jared Tevis also earned All-Pac-12 honorable mention nods.

Casteel was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at West Virginia during the 2003-11 seasons and spent the 2002 season in Morgantown as co-coordinator. He worked with the defensive line at WVU in 2001 and as defensive ends coach at UTEP in 2000.

His multiple spread defense, the 3-3-5, normally uses three down linemen and at times up to half a dozen defensive backs. His 2011 version helped the Mountaineers contain a potent Clemson offense and beat the Tigers, 70-33, in the 2012 Orange Bowl, with four turnovers gained, one for a score.

Among some of Casteel's noteworthy defenses at WVU were units that were No. 4 nationally in turnover margin in 2003; No. 7 nationally in turnover margin and No. 15 in total defense in 2005; best in the Big East and No. 13 nationally in rushing defense and 25th in turnover margin in 2006; No. 7 in total defense, No. 8 in scoring defense, No. 9 in turnover margin and top-20 marks in sacks and rushing defense in 2007; No. 11 in scoring defense and top-20 marks in turnover margin and pass efficiency defense in 2008; and No. 3 nationally in total defense in 2010.

He was the defensive line and strength coach at Shepherd University in Shepherdstown, W. Va., in 1989 and 1990 and assistant head coach and defensive coordinator from 1991-99 at Shepherd before moving to Division I football at UTEP.

Shepherd teams won West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference titles six times while he was assistant head coach. He was part of a WVU staff that led the Mountaineers to an average of 10 victories per season from 2006-11, two of those under Rodriguez.

He began his coaching career at California University in Pennsylvania as a graduate assistant from 1984-86, and then coached the defensive line at Palmetto High School in Miami, Fla. for a year.

Casteel and his wife, Rosemary, have two children, Jacob and Sarah. He holds bachelor's and master's degrees from California University (Pa.).

Matt Caponi Safeties

Year in Coaching: 10th
Year at Arizona: Third

In his third season with the Wildcats, Matt Caponi serves as safeties assistant coach. He was a defensive graduate assistant at UA during the 2012 season after being hired by Rodriguez in December 2011.

Caponi's safeties accounted for 224 tackles in 2013, nearly a third of the Wildcats' total stops. Arizona had five INT returns for touchdowns, tied for most among FBS teams. UA intercepted 18 passes in 2013, its most in a single campaign since totaling 16 in 2008.

With Caponi's guidance, Tra'Mayne Bondurant paced the secondary with four interceptions for 79 return yards and two touchdowns. William Parks contributed with two interceptions for 88 return yards and a touchdown in the AdvoCare V100 Bowl victory.

Prior to his arrival in Tucson, Caponi was a graduate assistant at Pittsburgh in 2011 and was the defensive coordinator at Washington and Jefferson College for three seasons (2008-10).

He worked with the linebackers in 2010 and was in charge of the secondary from 2006-09 at W&J. During the 2008 season, the Presidents advanced to the NCAA National Quarterfinals. Caponi got his start in coaching in 2004 as a student assistant at his alma mater, Mount Union College, and was Mount Union's JV coordinator and linebackers coach in 2005.

Caponi was a team captain and starting safety at Mount Union, earning all-conference second-team honors as a senior in 2003. MUC went 55-1 during his four years including three Division III national titles. He earned a degree in physical education in 2005.

Tony Dews Receivers

Year in Coaching: 18th
Year at Arizona: Third

In his third season with Arizona, Tony Dews coaches the Wildcat receivers. He was named to the Arizona staff on Dec. 7, 2011 by head coach Rich Rodriguez.

In 2013, Arizona's receivers accumulated 2,269 yards from 196 receptions to average 11.6 yards per catch.

UA's receiving corps was headlined by two true freshmen in 2013. Nate Phillips was named a Freshman All-American by the Football Writers' Association of America and earned All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention honors. He led the receivers with 51 catches for 696 yards and seven touchdowns while averaging 13.6 yards per catch. He collected nine receptions and totaled 193 yards – the most ever by a true freshman in school history – in the AdvoCare V100 Bowl victory vs. Boston College. His yardage total is 11th-most in single-game history. Samajie Grant totaled 47 receptions for 373 yards and one touchdown.

Under Dews' guidance, Austin Hill totaled 81 catches for 1,364 yards and 11 touchdowns to lead the Wildcat receivers in 2012. He was named a Biletnikoff Award semifinalist, second-team All-Pac-12 and fourth-team All-America by Phil Steele. He ranked No. 2 in the Pac-12 in total receiving yards and yards per game (104.9).

Dews spent the 2011 season as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Pittsburgh. He coached with Rodriguez at Michigan for three years (2008-10), at West Virginia for one season (2007), and has coached at six other schools in his career.

He coached tight ends at Central Michigan in 2004 and 2005, serving as CMU's special teams coordinator the final year. He coached linebackers and was associate special teams coordinator at UNLV in 2006 before joining Rodriguez' staff at WVU the following year. Dews also coached the offensive line at California (Pa.) University in 2002, and the defensive line at Holy Cross in 2003 before joining the staff at Central Michigan.

Dews began his coaching career at Bainbridge (Ga.) High School as offensive line coach in 1997. He moved to the collegiate ranks as a graduate assistant at West Virginia from 1999-2001, then with his first full-time position at Millersville University outside Lancaster, Pa., in 1998, working with the defensive line.

A graduate of Liberty University in 1996, Dews earned a master's degree from West Virginia in 2001. He played tight end and was the Flames' leading receiver among tight ends his final two years at Liberty.

He and his wife, Tamika, have four daughters, Savannah, Sierra, Sydney and Sienna.

Bill Kirelawich Defensive Line

Year in Coaching: 45th
Year at Arizona: Third

Veteran defensive line coach Bill Kirelawich is in his third season at Arizona. He was named defensive line coach in January 2012 by head coach Rich Rodriguez.

He joined the Wildcat staff after three decades of coaching defense at West Virginia University. His grasp of Rodriguez's overall program and Jeff Casteel's 3-3-5 defense is second to none. Kirelawich's defenses ranked No. 1 nationally in 1996 and No. 3 in 2010.

Arizona's defensive front significantly improved its production in year two with Kirelawich. In 2013, the Wildcats totaled 77 tackles for a loss of 255 yards. In 2012, UA totaled 67 tackles for loss and 16 sacks over a 13-game season. Starting defensive linemen Sione Tuihalamaka (11.0 TFL, 5.0 sacks), Reggie Gilbert (7.0 TFL, 4.0 sacks) and Tevin Hood (7.5 TFL and 1.0 sacks) combined for 25.5 tackles for loss and 10 sacks in 2013. In 2012, that trio totaled 11.0 tackles for loss and 4.0 sacks.

Kirelawich started coaching at West Virginia in 1979 when he spent a year as a part-time assistant. He coached the defensive line from 1980-87, outside linebackers from 1988-90, the line again from 1991 to 2000, was an administrative assistant in 2001-02 and coached the line his last nine years in Morgantown.

His tenure in Morgantown was marked by bowl appearances, high statistical rankings, coaching All-Americans and all-conference players and the collegiate training of numerous players who went on to the professional ranks. He was 2010 FootballScoop Defensive Line Coach of the Year.

He began his coaching career with a nine-year stint as head coach at Cardinal Brennan (Pa.) High School from 1970-78. Kirelawich graduated from Salem University in West Virginia in 1969. A team captain and linebacker, Kirelawich still owns the school record with an 89-yard interception return.

Kirelawich and his wife, Maggie, have three children, Billy, Miki and Jake, and a granddaughter, Kate. Billy is Assistant Director of Operations for the UA football program.

David Lockwood Cornerbacks

Year in Coaching: 26th
Year at Arizona: Third

In his third season coaching Arizona's cornerbacks, David Lockwood joined Rich Rodriguez's staff in January 2012. He came to UA from West Virginia, where he was cornerbacks coach from 2008-11. He rejoined Rodriguez 22 years after working together as entry-level coaches. He has extensive experience coaching on both sides of the ball.

Last season, Arizona had five INT returns for touchdowns, tied for most among FBS teams. UA intercepted 18 passes in 2013, its most in a single campaign since totaling 16 in 2008. Lockwood's defensive backs accounted for eight interceptions for 50 return yards.

Jonathan McKnight led the group in passes broken up with eight while Jourdon Grandon chipped in with five. Shaquille Richardson was part of one of the most exciting plays of the year against No. 5 Oregon. Marcus Mariota entered the game having not thrown an interception this season, or in 353 total attempts but linebacker Scooby Wright hauled in an interception on the game's first play following an assist from Richardson. Later, Richardson intercepted a pass on Oregon's final drive, his third of the year.

During the 2012 season, Richardson ranked fourth in the league and No. 16 nationally in passes broken up with 14. Lockwood's unit accounted for five interceptions for 124 yards, including a turnover from Richardson in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl that led to Arizona's first score of the game.

Lockwood's units have recorded league-best interception totals (WVU, 2009), top 25 in pass defense (Kentucky, 2007; Memphis 1999) and a national No. 1 ranking in turnover margin (Minnesota, 2006), among other highlights. He also helped coach both James Madison and Delaware to four NCAA I-AA playoff appearances. His secondary at WVU ranked 11th nationally in pass defense during the 2010 season.

Prior working at his alma mater WVU, Lockwood was Kentucky's defensive backs coach in 2007, Minnesota's defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 2005-06 and Minnesota's secondary coach from 2002-04.

He coached cornerbacks at Notre Dame in 2001, defensive backs at West Virginia in 2000 and defensive backs at Memphis in 1999. He coached wide receivers at Memphis from 1995-98, tight ends and receivers at James Madison in 1994, and tight ends and receivers at Delaware from 1990-93.

Lockwood began his career as a graduate assistant with the 1989 West Virginia team and earned his bachelor's degree from WVU in 1989.

He was a four-year letterman and defensive back at WVU from 1984-88 and a member of the 1984 Bluebonnet, 1987 Sun and 1988 Fiesta Bowl teams. He helped the Mountaineers to an undefeated regular season and national championship game as a senior.

Lockwood and his wife, Heidi, have three children, Autumn, David Jr. and Jeffrey.

Jim Michalczik Offensive Line

Year in Coaching: 25th
Year at Arizona: Second

Veteran collegiate and NFL assistant coach Jim Michalczik joined head coach Rich Rodriguez and the Arizona football staff on Jan. 15, 2013 as the Wildcats' offensive line coach.

Under Michalczik's guidance, the Wildcats' offensive line blocked for Ka'Deem Carey's 1,885 yards and 19 touchdowns. Additionally, B.J. Denker threw for 2,516 yards and 16 scores. Arizona's offense averaged 33.5 points per game, totaled 311 first downs and averaged 458.5 yards of offense per game.

Michalczik came to Arizona after spending nine seasons over two stints on the California coaching staff from 2002-08 and 2011-12, serving his first seven campaigns with the Golden Bears as the offensive line coach and his final two as the team's offensive coordinator, in addition to his offensive line duties. He was a member of the Oakland Raiders staff in 2009-10, serving as offensive line coach.

Michalczik has a combined 24 campaigns of experience in the collegiate and professional coaching ranks, including a total of eight winning seasons and seven bowl games with the Bears. The play of Cal's offensive line under Michalczik's direction from 2002-08 and again in 2011 and 2012 was a key factor to the Bears posting a 69-45 (.605) record during the nine-year period.

Current NFL players Alex Mack and Mitchell Schwartz of the Browns, along with Brian De La Puente (New Orleans Saints), are among the 12 former offensive linemen that played for Michalczik to be signed by NFL teams. Others that have spent time on NFL rosters include Justin Cheadle, Mike Gibson, Ryan O'Callaghan, Aaron Merz, Marvin Philip, Erik Robertson, Mike Tepper, Scott Tercero and Mark Wilson.

Prior to joining Cal in 2002, Michalczik spent three seasons at Oregon State coaching the tight ends, while also serving as special teams coordinator and an assistant coach on the offensive line. The Beavers posted their first winning season in 29 years in his first campaign in Corvallis in 1999.

Michalczik was also the offensive line coach for seven seasons at Montana State from 1992-98 after beginning his coaching career with two campaigns (1990-91) as a defensive line coach at Miami (Fla.). The Hurricanes won the 1991 national title after posting an unbeaten 12-0 season. In 1990, Miami was ranked fourth nationally and finished with a 9-2 mark.

He is a 1988 graduate of Washington State, including an appearance in the 1988 Aloha Bowl as a member of the Cougars' offensive line. He earned three letters as an offensive guard in Pullman, earning honorable mention All-Pac-10 and honorable mention All-America honors from The Sporting News as a senior. A native of Port Angeles, Wash., Michalczik and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Max and Chase.

Charlie Ragle
Tight Ends/Special Teams

Year in Coaching: Third
Year at Arizona: Third

After serving as Arizona's assistant director of operations for the 2012 season, Charlie Ragle was named assistant coach charged with overseeing the tight ends and special teams in December 2012.

In Ragle's first season, kicker Jake Smith completed seven PAT and three field goals to set a school record for points in a game by a kicker (16) in the 58-13 win at UNLV. On the season, Smith scored 89 points with 12 field goals and 53 extra points. He had a season-long kick of 53 yards in the road win at California.

Punter Drew Riggleman had 56 kicks for 2,243 yards with an average of 40.1 yards per kick and a long punt of 71 yards vs. Washington State. He recorded four touchbacks and landed 18 punts inside the 20 with 12 kicks of 50+ yards. Additionally, five of Ragle's players earned Pac-12 All-Academic honors.

Ragle was head coach at Chaparral High School in Scottsdale, Ariz. from 2007-11, winning three 5A II state championships in 2009, 2010 and 2011 while compiling a remarkable 63-7 record in the span. Ragle's Chaparral staff developed a relationship with Rodriguez in 2008 when he recruited two of Ragle's prep players for Michigan's program.

Ragle's last Firebird team went 14-1 in capturing his third Division II state title. He also shared athletic director duties at Chaparral. He was defensive coordinator in 2005 at the school before taking a year to serve as a graduate assistant at ASU in 2006, working with the offensive line. He was defensive coordinator at Moon Valley High School in Phoenix for five years from 2000-04.

A 1998 graduate of Eastern New Mexico, Ragle was a three-year starting running back and kick returner. He and his wife, Carrie, have a daughter, Caylee, and a son, Chas.

Mike DiAngelo
Defensive Graduate Assistant

Year in Coaching: Ninth
Year at Arizona: Second

Mike DiAngelo is in his second season as a defensive graduate assistant at Arizona. He works primarily with the safeties while assisting with all facets of the defense.

He joined Rich Rodriguez's staff in spring 2013 after spending six years on the coaching staff at Washington and Jefferson College. During his tenure with the Presidents, DiAngelo served as secondary coach, quarterbacks and receivers coach and also served as special teams coordinator.

DiAngelo helped W&J earn the school's 23rd PAC Championship and 22nd NCAA playoff appearance during the 2012 season. As special teams coordinator, he played an important role in the development of Eric Eberle, who became one of the region's top kickers/punters. Eberle booted 11 field goals (second in school history) and was an All-PAC First-Team selection. W&J led the conference in kickoff coverage with a 40.6-yard advantage per game on their opponents.

In 2011, DiAngelo helped the Presidents rank 37th in the nation in total defense (299.3 ypg). DiAngelo also coached wide receiver David Ravidia, who finished his career as the Presidents' all-time leading receiver with 191 catches.

He spent the 2006 season as an assistant football coach at Division II Concord University (W.Va.) where he worked primarily as the team's quarterbacks coach. He also assisted with the special teams units.

DiAngelo was a four-year member of the Baldwin-Wallace (2002-05) football program and a two-year starting quarterback. As a junior, the Steubenville, Ohio native threw for 1,249 yards and eight touchdowns. During his sophomore season in 2003, the Yellow Jackets earned a bid to the NCAA Division III playoffs.

DiAngelo graduated with a bachelor's degree in sport management in 2006 and earned his master's degree in education from Franciscan University (Steubenville, Ohio) in 2009.

Casey Vance
Defensive Graduate Assistant

Year in Coaching: Second
Year at Arizona: Second

Casey Vance is in his second season as a defensive graduate assistant at Arizona. He works primarily with the linebackers while assisting with all facets of the defense. He joined the Arizona football staff in spring 2013 after a decorated playing and academic career at West Virginia.

Vance was a seven-time Dean's List honoree, a member of the President's List, two-time All-Big East Academic Team and a nine-time member of the Garret Ford Academic Honor Roll.

He was a recipient of WVU's 2012 Meisel Award, given to the senior with the highest GPA while lettering for the football team, a recipient of the Sturgis Endowment Scholarship and a recipient of the Promise Scholarship.

He earned his bachelor's degree in history in 2011 and his master's degree in secondary education in 2013, both from West Virginia. Vance is a native of Seneca Rocks, W.Va.

Cory Zirbel Offensive Graduate Assistant

Year in Coaching: Fourth
Year at Arizona: Third

Cory Zirbel is in his third season as an offensive graduate assistant at Arizona. He works primarily with the offensive line while assisting with all facets of the offense. He joined Arizona's staff in December 2011.

Zirbel was a scholarship player and two-time letterwinner (2007, 2008) as an offensive lineman at Michigan from 2005-09. He redshirted his true freshman year in 2005, played in 11 games at tackle and on special teams in 2006, and all 13 games in 2007 as a guard and a member of the kicking units. He was backup to UM consensus All-American Jake Long in 2006.

Before his fourth year, a knee condition cut his playing career short. Instead, he served Rich Rodriguez's offensive staff as a volunteer student assistant in 2009 and was hired as an offensive quality control staff member in 2010. In 2011, Zirbel worked for the Michigan Athletic Department.

Zirbel earned University of Michigan Academic Achievement honors in 2006 and 2009. He earned his degree in general studies with an emphasis in sociology in 2009 and is working on a master's in educational psychology at Arizona. He played at Murray High School in Kentucky where he was the state's Gatorade Player of the Year in 2004.

Zirbel and his wife, Jakki, were married in July 2013. His twin brother, Cody, is in the U.S. Marine Corps.

Matt Dudek Director of On-Campus Recruiting and Player Personnel

Year in College Athletics: Ninth
Year at Arizona: Third

Matt Dudek is in his third season as Arizona football's on-campus recruiting coordinator and player personnel director. He provides considerable focus to on-campus recruiting, including the planning and details for visits by prospective student-athletes, in addition to his work with the players and personnel duties. He also works closely with the coaches on the operational end of their recruiting efforts. He joined Rich Rodriguez's staff in December 2011.

With a stellar reputation as one of the nation's top recruiting coordinators, he helped assemble the No. 23 recruiting class for Arizona, ranked by ESPN, on National Signing Day in February 2014. Dudek's resume also boasts four top-25 recruiting classes during his tenure at Pittsburgh.

Dudek was the Director of Football Branding and Events at Rutgers University for the 2011 season, and the Assistant Director of Football Operations and Recruiting Coordinator at Pittsburgh for several years prior.

Also at Pittsburgh, he worked as an academic counselor with the football, women's tennis and gymnastics teams. He served as the Disability Resource Services liaison and the Continuing Eligibility Certification representative. Dudek was familiar with the football program prior to joining the academic staff as he spent two years as a video graduate assistant for the Panthers.

He is a 2003 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh. In 2008, Dudek earned his M. Ed. in Instruction and Learning, graduating summa cum laude. He earned his Pennsylvania Instructional Certification in Secondary Social Studies Education in 2007. He graduated from South Allegheny High School, near McKeesport, in the greater Pittsburgh area.

Dudek and his wife, Lindsay, have daughters, Abby, and twins, Giuliana and Camella.

Mike Parrish Assistant A.D./Director of Operations

Year in College Athletics: Eighth
Year at Arizona: Third

Mike Parrish is in his third season as Arizona football's Director of Operations. He was promoted to assistant athletics director in 2013 after joining the staff in December 2011.

Parrish is the staff's liaison to academic support staff, the athletic department's compliance office, directs team travel, the football calendar, recruiting processes and many other day-to-day activities for the staff.

He served as Rodriguez's Director of Operations at Michigan in 2010 and was an operations assistant in Ann Arbor for the first two years of Rodriguez's tenure (2008, 2009).

At West Virginia, he served as operations graduate assistant in 2006 and 2007 and was an operations student assistant during his undergraduate career. Additionally, he was an intern with Steiner Sports Marketing and Memorabilia Agency in New Rochelle, N.Y. in 2005.

A native of Hershey, Pa., he earned bachelor's (2006) and master's (2008) degrees from West Virginia. He married Lauren Wisniewski in July 2014.

Billy Kirelawich Assistant Director of Operations

Year in College Athletics: Third
Year at Arizona: Third

Billy Kirelawich is in his third season as a member of the operations staff for Arizona football. He assists in day-to-day planning and helps with recruiting logistics.

In 2010, he worked in the Pittsburgh Pirates' Florida operations in Bradenton, Fla., and in 2011, he was an associate in Baltimore, Md., at Aerotek, a recruiting and staffing firm focused primarily in the aerospace and defense industry.

He received his bachelor's degree in sports management from West Virginia University in 2008, and a master's in the same discipline in 2010. Born in Wheeling, W. Va., he played linebacker at University High School in Morgantown, W. Va.

He and his wife, Madeline, welcomed a baby girl, Kate, in March 2014. His father, Bill, serves as Arizona's defensive line coach.

Jahmile Addae Operations Coordinator

Year in College Athletics: Eighth
Year at Arizona: Second

Jahmile Addae (JUH-mall UH-dye) is in his second season as a member of the Arizona football operations staff, assisting with the day-to-day duties of total program management.

He spent the 2010 and 2011 seasons as the running backs coach at the University of Cincinnati. At UC, Addae mentored All-BIG EAST Second-Team selection Isaiah Pead, who rushed for 1,029 yards while leading the conference in yards per carry (6.6), a mark that ranked him in the top-10 nationally. Pead, who averaged 93.6 yards per game, was UC's first 1,000-yard rusher in almost a decade and only the Bearcats' seventh all-time. Addae was recognized by Rivals.com as one of the top-10 recruiters in the BIG EAST Conference.

He previously served as UC's Director of Player Development. He also managed many of UC's off-the-field responsibilities including overseeing the highly-successful Cats In The Community program.

Addae arrived at UC after two seasons as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Michigan working with the Wolverines' defensive secondary and scout team offense. Addae was a graduate assistant in the football video department at West Virginia University in 2007.

He was a four-year starter, two-time captain and three-time All-BIG EAST performer at West Virginia. He was a finalist for the 2005 Ronnie Lott Trophy and was named to the watch list for the 2005 Jim Thorpe Award. He was selected for the Senior Bowl in 2005 and participated in the NFL Combine.

A native of Tampa, Fla., Addae signed a free agent contract with his hometown Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2005 and spent the end of the season with the Indianapolis Colts.

Addae and his wife, Maryann, have two sons, Agyeman and Ayden.

Vincent Amey is in his third season as an assistant on the strength and conditioning staff for Arizona football. He came to the University of Arizona Strength and Conditioning staff with several years of football coaching and playing experience.

Prior to his arrival in Tucson in 2012, he served as defensive line coach at Chaparral High School in Phoenix, the 2011 Arizona State Champions.

He played in the NFL, originally drafted by the Oakland Raiders, in NFL Europe and in the Arena League. He was a member of the 1999 NFL Europe Championship team with the Frankfurt Galaxy and is an eight-year veteran of the Arena Football League, spending a significant amount of his career with the Arizona Rattlers.

Amey was a four-year letterman at Arizona State as a defensive tackle. He played as a true freshman in 1994, was a member of the 1996 and 1997 Pac-10 Championship teams, started at defensive tackle in the 1997 Rose Bowl and was named Pac-12 Honorable Mention.

Amey and his wife, Kelley, have sons Myles and twins, Dallas and Jackson.

Brett Gerch Strength and Conditioning

Year in College Athletics: 11th
Year at Arizona: First

Brett Gerch joined the Arizona strength and conditioning staff in March 2014 after serving as the head football strength coach at Army in West Point, N.Y. from 2009-13.

After working for head coach Rich Ellerson at Cal Poly from 2007-09, Gerch joined Ellerson, Arizona's defensive coordinator from 1992-95 and 1997-2000, at West Point.

In his two years at Cal Poly, Gerch was responsible for designing and implementing the strength and conditioning program for Ellerson's football team and all 20 of the Mustangs' varsity programs.

Prior to his tenure in San Luis Obispo, Gerch worked for one year on the strength and conditioning staff at the University of Delaware, where he assisted with the football team and oversaw the strength and speed programs for the Blue Hens' tennis, softball, soccer, rowing and track and field teams.

Gerch worked outside of intercollegiate athletics for four years prior to joining the Delaware staff. From 2003-06, he was the head sports performance coach at Velocity Sports Performance in Baltimore, Md. He trained professional, college and high school athletes in various sports with an emphasis on weight lifting, agility and speed development. During his time in Baltimore, Gerch also served as a part-time assistant strength coach with the National Football League's Baltimore Ravens.

The 2000 graduate of Appalachian State University also boasts experience on the campuses of the University of Richmond (2002-03), Western Carolina University (2001-02) and the University of North Carolina (2000-01). He has designed workout programs for a variety of sports, including soccer, field hockey, swimming and diving, golf, gymnastics and softball.

Gerch spent the summer of 1999 as a strength and conditioning intern with the U.S. Olympic Training Center in Lake Placid, N.Y. While in Lake Placid, he trained athletes from winter Olympic sports and emphasized

Goulbourne played on the WVU teams that participated in the 2005 Sugar, 2006 Gator, 2007 Fiesta, 2008 Car Care and 2009 Gator Bowls. He graduated in 2009 with a degree in multidisciplinary studies. During his time in Morgantown, Goulbourne was named to the Athletic Director's Honor Roll and a BIG EAST Academic All-Star.

A native of Lluidas Vale, St. Catherine, Jamaica, he was a football star at Easton Area High School in Easton, Pa. Goulbourne was a star running back for the Red Rovers and was the Express-Times Football Player of the Year in 2004.

Wendell Neal Associate A.D./Equipment Operations

Year in College Athletics: 31st Year at Arizona: 17th

Wendell Neal joined the Arizona Athletic Department in July 1998 as Director of Equipment Operations. In August 2003, he was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Equipment Operations and is now an associate athletic director. Neal and his staff oversee all equipment needs for the 20 sports programs at the University of Arizona.

Neal is a certified member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA). In past years, he has served on the AEMA Board of Directors, Certification Steering Committee and Continuing Education Committee.

Before arriving in Tucson, Neal served as the Director of Equipment Operations at Washington State University for nearly 10 years spanning from 1989-98. He has also served as Athletic Equipment/Facilities Director at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas from 1984-89.

Neal earned a bachelor's degree in education from the University of Houston, where he was a student football manager for four years. He started his full-time career as an equipment manager at his alma mater.

Neal is married to the former Cindy Hale, and they have one daughter, Natalie, and two sons, Tyler and Austin. Neal has been active in youth sports, serving on Little League Boards, while coaching youth baseball and AAU basketball.

Michael Barnett Equipment Operations

Year in College Athletics: Third Year at Arizona: Second

Michael Barnett is in his second season as a member of the equipment staff for Arizona football. He spent the 2012 season as the assistant football equipment manager for Louisiana Tech. He got his start in college athletics as a student football equipment manager for the Wildcats from 2009-12.

Barnett assists in maintaining equipment for the team, all day-to-day equipment room issues, inventory, pre- and post-game laundry, transporting and setting up equipment for home and away games and aiding the coaches during practices and on game days. He helps oversee a staff of 16 student managers.

Barnett has also worked as an assistant for the Lute Olson Basketball Camp, Mike Stoops Football Camp, Sean Miller Basketball Camp, the UCLA Basketball Camp and the Louisiana Tech Football Camp.

He is a member of and certified by the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA). A native of New City, N.Y., Barnett earned a bachelor's degree in communication from the University of Arizona.

Tim Cummins Video Coordinator

Year in College Athletics: 10th Year at Arizona: 10th

Tim Cummins is in his 10th season with Arizona football and his seventh season as head video coordinator. He organizes the filming of practices and games as a teaching tool for coaches and player evaluations.

In 2013-14, Cummins was named the Pac-12 Video Coordinator of the Year by his peers and by the Collegiate Sports Video Association. He is also responsible for weekly exchanges with opponents, upkeep and maintenance of the equipment used by the football team, meeting with coordinators and position coaches for video cut-up needs and he produces weekly motivational videos and the season highlight video.

While managing a staff of nine in the daily video operations, Cummins serves as the administrator of Arizona's cloud video-based technology, allowing access to video from home via internet using devices.

Cummins earned his bachelor's degree from UA in 2004 in media arts. Prior to his work with Arizona Athletics, he served as a video production consultant and was a football coach at Salpointe Catholic High School. A Tucson native, Cummins is married to the former Rebecca LeGendre.

Brian Riden Video Coordinator

Year in College Athletics: Fourth Year at Arizona: Fourth

Brian Riden is in his fourth year as assistant video coordinator with the Arizona football team. Previously, he spent two seasons as a video student assistant with the Wildcats.

Prior to joining the staff fulltime, he completed an internship with the Arizona Athletics Video Department doing camera work for men's and women's basketball, baseball, softball and track and field.

A Tucson native, he attended Pueblo High School and Pima Community College before earning his bachelor's degree in media arts with a minor in business from Arizona in 2011. Riden spent seven seasons as the volunteer coach for the Pueblo High School girls' basketball team.

2013 Season in Review

Game 1: Arizona 35, NAU 0 (Pac-12 Networks)

Aug. 30, 2013 – Arizona Stadium – Attendance: 53,793

Kickoff: 7:07 p.m. – Time of Game: 2:51 – Weather: 85, overcast, showers

TUCSON, Ariz. – Senior Daniel Jenkins accounted for 152 yards of total offense and the Arizona football team piled up more than 300 yards on the ground on Friday in its season-opening 35-0 win over Northern Arizona at Arizona Stadium.

The Wildcats recorded 393 yards of total offense on the night, 306 of which came on the ground. In addition to Jenkins' career-high 139 yards and a score, quarterbacks B.J. Denker (71) and Javelle Allen (67) combined for 133 yards and a rushing touchdown each.

Arizona's defense limited NAU to just 270 yards of total offense and 94 yards rushing in the second shutout of the Rich Rodriguez Era. Senior linebacker Jake Fischer and junior safety Tra'Mayne Bondurant shared team-high honors with seven tackles apiece, while the latter recorded a pair of interceptions – one of which he ran back for a score – to spark a defense that forced three turnovers on the night.

As a unit, the UA defense registered three sacks and 11 tackles for loss in the victory.

"It was a solid performance tonight," Rodriguez said. "We had some issues execution-wise offensively, but the defense was good and they played hard. NAU played hard tonight, as well, and they have a good team. It was nice to get a win and see some of the new guys play for the first time."

The Wildcats found the end zone on the season's first possession, taking the opening kickoff and needing just 3:49 to march 75 yards. Denker capped the drive with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Jenkins, the first scoring catch of the latter's career.

Jenkins continued to provide fireworks for Arizona late in the second period, taking off on a 91-yard touchdown run – the third-longest in program history – to make the score 14-0 with 5:32 to play in the first half. The Moreno Valley, Calif., native finished the first half with 139 yards of total offense, including 129 rushing yards on just nine attempts, and a pair of scores.

Arizona's defense was active in the first half, allowing NAU just 127 total yards and 32 yards on the ground. Fischer had five first-half stops, while senior cornerback Shaquille Richardson posted a pair of tackles for loss.

Bondurant got things going for UA in the second half, intercepting a tipped ball on the half's first play from scrimmage and taking the ball 23 yards for a score. It was Bondurant's second-career interception return for a touchdown.

Denker got the Wildcats on the board again midway through the third quarter, bolting for a 30-yard score. Freshman Devin Holiday intercepted NAU's Kyren Poe on NAU's next possession, the first pick of his collegiate career. Bondurant followed up with his second interception of the contest in the waning seconds of the third quarter, bringing Arizona's total to three picks on the night.

Allen posted his first-career touchdown late in the fourth quarter, sprinting 61 yards up the middle to cap the night's scoring.

Jenkins led UA with three catches on a quiet night for the passing game, with Garic Wharton and Johnny Jackson each coming up with two receptions. Denker finished the night 9-of-13 for 87 yards, a touchdown and a 150.8 passer rating.

Game 2: Arizona 58, UNLV 13 (CBS Sports)

Sept. 7, 2012 – Sam Boyd Stadium – Attendance: 26,950

Start: 7:34 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:30 – Weather: 87, mostly cloudy

LAS VEGAS, Nev. – Ka'Deem Carey had a field day in his first game of the year, notching 171 of the team's 397 total rushing yards and adding two touchdowns as Arizona cruised to victory, 58-13, against UNLV in Las Vegas on Saturday.

Fellow running backs Daniel Jenkins and Jared Baker, along with quarterback B.J. Denker, contributed significantly to the rushing offensive, posting 79, 66, and 63-yard performances, respectively.

UNLV couldn't establish a rhythm against the stifling Arizona defense, which held the Rebels to 282 total yards, forced three turnovers and scored two touchdowns.

Senior linebacker Jake Fischer and junior safety Tra'Mayne Bondurant each returned interceptions for touchdowns, and freshman linebacker Scooby Wright led the defense with seven tackles, including one for a loss. Senior defensive lineman Tevin Hood was responsible for the other turnover in the game as he forced a fumble early that eventually led to an Arizona touchdown.

In their first drive of the game, Arizona faced a third down early, but Jenkins was able to keep the chains moving with a 20-yard rush. The drive culminated with a 41-yard Jake Smith field goal to give the Wildcats the early lead.

After a strong defensive hold, UA needed only 2:22 to drive 85 yards for their first touchdown, a 35-yard keeper by Denker.

Just as the Rebels were starting to put together a drive, Hood forced a fumble that was recovered by senior linebacker Marquis Flowers and returned 36 yards to the UNLV nine-yard line. It only took two plays for Arizona to go up 17-0 on another Denker keeper.

UNLV bounced back to tighten the gap 17-6 on a 69-yard connection from Nick Sherry to Devante Davis.

To open the next drive, Carey got his first carry of the season, a 58 yarder for a touchdown to put UA up 24-6.

Carey put the Wildcats up another touchdown on the following drive, this time on a 12-yard run.

The next two Arizona touchdowns came off a pair of pick-sixes. Fischer returned one 49 yards, and reigning Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week Bondurant took a Shelly pass 52 yards to the house to put Arizona up 45-6 at the end of the first-half.

Arizona opened the second-half in similar fashion to the first as Smith hit a 29-yard field goal. Despite it being the only points of the third-quarter, the Wildcats extend their streak of opening every half this season by putting points on the board.

Smith gave the Wildcats another three points in the fourth-quarter, this time from 30 yards out.

UNLV thinned the scoring margin late on a 79-yard rush by junior running back Shaquille Murray-Lawrence, but it was short lived as Kylan Butler capped off a 5:23, 84-yard drive with a touchdown run to increase the Wildcat lead for the last time at 58-13.

Game 3: Arizona 38, UTSA 13 (Pac-12 Networks)

Sept. 14, 2013 – Arizona Stadium – Attendance: 41,661

Start: 7:37 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:00 – Weather: 91, mostly clear

TUCSON, Ariz. – B.J. Denker accounted for three total touchdowns and Ka'Deem Carey added a pair of scores on the ground as the University of Arizona football team overpowered UTSA, 38-13, on Saturday night.

The Wildcats piled up more than 400 yards of total offense on the night, including 264 in the running game as Carey posted a game-high 128 yards to go along with his two touchdowns. Denker ran for 90 yards and a pair of touchdowns on 10 carries, as UA averaged 5.5 yards per carry for the game.

The senior quarterback was also 14-of-21 for 158 yards and a touchdown through the air. Freshman Samajie Grant hauled in a team-high five receptions, including the first touchdown of his career, and Garic Wharton put up a team-high 57 receiving yards on three grabs. Carey added two receptions for 33 yards to give him 161 yards of total offense on Saturday night.

Arizona was 7-of-13 (.538) on third down and a perfect 5-of-5 in the red zone against UTSA. The Wildcats converted two UTSA turnovers into 14 points.

"It was a business-like performance for our guys," Arizona head coach Rich Rodriguez said. "We didn't execute all the time, but we played well in spurts to get a nice win. That's a good football team. They're pretty scrappy. It'll be good to have an open date to clean stuff up and get ready for Washington."

Tra'Mayne Bondurant and Shaquille Richardson spearheaded UA's defensive effort on Saturday with eight tackles apiece, while the former broke up three passes in the secondary. Jourdon Grandon added six tackles and an interception, and Scooby Wright also posted a half dozen stops.

"Our defense got better as the game went along," Rodriguez said. "We contained the ball pretty well for the most part. Overall, it was a solid performance against a pretty good team."

After UTSA kicked a field goal on the game's opening drive, Arizona ripped off an 11-play, 82-yard march the first time it touched the ball, taking a 7-3 lead when Denker found Grant for a 13-yard touchdown pass. The scoring strike capped a drive that saw Grant account for four receptions and 46 yards.

Grandon came up with his first interception of the season on UTSA's ensuing possession, setting up a 35-yard scoring run by Denker on a third-down scramble to make the score 14-3. After a UTSA punt, Jake Smith connected on a 23-yard field goal less than a minute into the second quarter to push the Wildcats' advantage to 17-3. Carey plunged four yards into the end zone with 2:57 left in the second quarter to extend the lead to 24-6 at the half.

Arizona used a balance offensive attack in the first half, passing for 113 yards and running for 112. Denker was 10-of-16 with a touchdown through the air and also ran for 64 yards in the first half.

Denker got Arizona on the board once again to open the second half, keeping the ball for a one-yard touchdown run to give UA a 31-6 lead early in the third period. The score would remain the same until Carey recorded his second touchdown run of the night, a seven-yard scamper, at the 13:57 mark of the fourth quarter to extended Arizona's advantage of 38-6.

Game 4: Washington 31, Arizona 13 (FOX)

Sept. 28, 2013 – Husky Stadium – Attendance: 65,815
Start: 4:05 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:17 – Weather: 60, rain

SEATTLE, Wash. – Washington's Bishop Sankey broke the school record for rushing attempts with 40 as he ran for 161 yards and a touchdown to lead the No. 16 Huskies past Arizona 31-13, on Saturday.

Junior running back Ka'Deem Carey led the way for the Wildcats, tallying 132 yards with one of Arizona's two touchdowns on the night. Despite Carey's groundwork, the offense struggled to establish a rhythm against an airtight Washington secondary.

Washington only needed 1:11 to get on the board in their opening drive, coming off a B.J. Denker interception. Arizona took advantage of a broken PAT though, leaving the Huskies with a 6-0 lead.

After an Arizona punt, the offense quickly got the ball back, thanks to a Shaquille Richardson interception, but then ended the drive with a punt of their own.

The Huskies closed out the first quarter with a safety on a Drew Riggleman punt attempt, as the rain-covered ball slipped through his hands into the back of the end zone.

After the safety kickoff, UA managed to hold the Huskies to a 42-yard field goal by Travis Coons to extend Washington's lead, 11-0.

As the second quarter came to a close, the Wildcat offense came alive. Denker led the Cats to a 14 play, 84-yard drive culminating in a three-yard touchdown run by Carey to reduce the deficit to 11-7.

To start the third quarter, Washington marched 95 yards down the field to score a touchdown on a one-yard pass from Keith Price to tight end Austin Seferian-Jenkins.

The Wildcats found themselves in a fourth-and-10 situation for their first possession of the second half, but Denker hit Carey for 24 yards on a wheel route to keep the drive alive. Two plays later, Denker faked a reverse before running a seven-yard touchdown to bring the score to 18-13.

The Huskies responded with a touchdown drive of their own that included a 49-yard connection from Price to Kevin Smith. The touchdown was scored on a 1-yard run by Bishop Sankey.

The final score of the game came on a two-yard touchdown rush by Washington's Jesse Callier, giving a final score of 31-13.

Game 5 - USC 38, Arizona 31 (FOX Sports 1)

Oct. 10, 2013 – L.A. Memorial Coliseum – Attendance: 64,215
Start: 7:35 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:23 – Weather: 61, partly hazy

LOS ANGELES, Calif. – USC quarterback Cody Kessler engineered 546 yards of total offense with two passing touchdowns to lead the Trojans past Arizona, 38-31, on Thursday.

Senior quarterback B.J. Denker passed for a total of 363 yards with four touchdowns for a career-high in passing yards and completions, completing 28-of-44. Denker threw to seven different receivers for 20 or more yards on at least two receptions each.

Junior running back Ka'Deem Carey led the Wildcats with 174 total yards. His 138 yards rushing marks his 14th career and eighth-straight 100-yard rush game, maintaining his lead of all active Pac-12 players in 100-yard rush games.

Both David Richards and Garic Wharton recorded touchdowns for the Cats. Terrence Miller led the team in receiving yards with 76 yards on six receptions.

To start the game, the Trojans needed only nine seconds in their drive for Kessler to connect with Nelson Agholor for a 62-yard touchdown. Although the Wildcats moved down the field, a missed kick by Jake Smith gave the ball back to USC.

In the next series, Kessler threw for another touchdown pass to provide USC a 14-0 lead to end the first quarter.

After a 26-yard pass to Miller, the Wildcats were able to create a rhythm allowing them to move down the field. To start the second quarter, two passes to Johnny Jackson gave the Cats 46 yards to the red zone. The drive ended with a 27-yard field goal by Smith to cut the lead.

A blocked punt by Soma Vainuku gave USC the ball once again. The Trojans extended their lead to 21-3 with a one-yard rushing touchdown by Justin Davis. From there, USC continued its scoring with another rushing touchdown.

Coming back with just under two minutes left in the half, pressure from USC opened up an opportunity for Denker to complete the longest pass play of the season for 57 yards to Nate Phillips, which resulted in a touchdown. With the extra point good, the Cats cut the lead to 28-10 entering halftime.

In the third quarter, the Arizona defense held USC to a 45-yard field goal by Andre Heidari. With just under five minutes left, Carey rushed for 39 yards followed by a big throw from Denker for a 45-yard touchdown pass to Wharton. This marked a career long reception for Wharton. With the extra point good, the Cats decreased the Trojan lead, 31-17.

To begin the fourth quarter, USC finished a nine-play drive for a touchdown by Javorius Allen, his second of the night.

In the following drive, the Wildcat offense came back once again. The Wildcats made their way down the field with powerful runs from Carey and a pair of complete passes to Miller. With pressure, Denker threw for his third touchdown pass to the back of the end zone to Richards. The 96-yard drive cut the Trojan lead to 38-24.

With momentum in the Wildcats' favor, the Arizona defense came up with a big stop against USC to gain possession of the ball with just under five minutes. Denker took just 19 seconds throw a pair of passes including one for a touchdown to Wharton, making it just a one-score game.

The Trojans finalized the win without scoring on a final drive down the field, ending a final score of 38-31.

Game 6 - Arizona 35, Utah 24 (Pac-12 Networks)

Oct. 19, 2013 – Arizona Stadium – Attendance: 50,871
Start: 7:07 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:13 – Weather: 73, clear

TUCSON, Ariz. – Ka'Deem Carey rumbled for a season-high 236 yards as part of a 300-yard team rushing effort on Saturday night as the Arizona football team battled to a 35-24 win over Utah.

The Tucson native logged a career-high 40 carries, sealing the win with a late 44-yard touchdown on his final run of the night. The Wildcats ran for an even 300 yards to mark the third time this season UA has reached the 300-yard mark on the ground. B.J. Denker ran for 51 yards and a pair of touchdowns from the quarterback position and Daniel Jenkins chipped in with 14 yards to supplement Carey's effort.

Saturday's performance marked the third time in his career that Carey topped the 200-yard mark, and he also went over 3,000 yards for his career on Saturday.

"On (Carey's) last touchdown, I was yelling at him to get down, but I'm sure he didn't hear me," Arizona head coach Rich Rodriguez said. "He's just a great football player. He's 10 pounds heavier and in great shape, and he has a certain hunger when he plays. He's one of the best I've ever coached."

With the running game opening up the field, Denker was efficient through the air against Utah. He completed 18-of-30 passes for 168 yards and a score, connecting with seven different receivers on the night. Nate Phillips led the Wildcat receiving corps with four catches for 63 yards and the touchdown, while Carey, David Richards and Samajie Grant each caught three balls.

For the night, UA finished with a 468-329 edge in total yards, including a 300-172 advantage in the running game. The Wildcats ran 88 plays, just shy of a season high, and piled up 26 first downs. Arizona was only penalized three times for 31 yards in the victory.

Jake Fischer had 12 tackles, including six solo stops, to pace an Arizona defense that forced a pair of turnovers and recorded three sacks. Sione Tuihalamaka had eight stops, including 1.5 for loss, and Scooby Wright had six on the night.

Arizona got interceptions from Marquis Flowers and Shaquille Richardson, with the former returning his for a 14-yard touchdown to help turn the tide early.

"It was a nice team win against a good, physical team," Rodriguez said. "We made a few mistakes, but it was a good effort and a very good win. Our guys were ready to play."

UA struck first on its initial possession of the game, primarily using its rushing attack to march 80 yards in eight plays for a 7-0 lead. Carey rumbled for 42 yards on the drive and Denker added 26, including the 10-yard scoring run.

After a Utah score to tie the score and an Arizona turnover on downs deep in opponent territory, Flowers intercepted Utes quarterback Travis Wilson at the Utah 14-yard line and returned the pick for his first-career touchdown to make the score 14-7 early in the second quarter. The interception was the fifth of Flowers' career and the fourth pick-six for Arizona this season.

Richardson's ninth-career interception set up Denker's second touchdown run of the game, a one-yard plunge with 5:48 left in the second quarter that pushed the Wildcats' lead to 20-7 at the break.

Arizona piled up 244 yards of total offense in the opening half, including 161 and two scores on the ground. Carey finished the half with 102 yards on 19 carries, eclipsing the 100-yard mark for the ninth-straight game before halftime. Denker was 11-of-15 for 83 yards through the air – spreading the ball around to six different receivers – and added 45 yards and two touchdowns on the ground in the first half.

Utah scored the first 14 points of the second half to take a 21-20 lead, and the score remained that way until Denker hit Phillips for a seven-yard touchdown strike with 13:32 left in the fourth quarter. Denker ran the ball for a two-point conversion, putting Arizona back up by a score of 28-21.

A Utah field goal cut the Arizona lead to 28-24 with 7:11 left to play, but a 44-yard Carey touchdown run with 1:30 play cemented the victory for the Wildcats.

At halftime, Arizona honored Tedy Bruschi with the retirement of his jersey and the on-campus salute of his induction into the College Football Hall of Fame, which will occur in December.

Game 7 - Arizona 44, Colorado 20 (Pac-12 Networks)

Oct. 26, 2013 – Folsom Field – Attendance: 38,679

Start: 6:08 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:15 – Weather: 59, clear

BOULDER, Colo. – The altitude didn't have much effect on running back Ka'Deem Carey or quarterback B.J. Denker as they continued their dominance of Colorado with a 44-20 win in Boulder on Saturday.

In his past two games against the Buffaloes, Carey has rushed for a combined 485 yards and nine touchdowns. Denker has had a similar history, combining for 401 passing yards, 236 rushing yards and four touchdowns.

On the day, Carey finished with 119 yards and four touchdowns, including 97 yards and two touchdowns on 17 carries in the first half alone. The game brought his season touchdowns total up to 10 and his per game distance to 133.5 ypg. Denker got in on the fun, too, running for 192 yards to complement his 21-of-32 passing for 265 yards and one touchdown.

Colorado freshman quarterback Sefo Liufau led the Buffs in his first Pac-12 start, going 17-of-32 for 212 yards and one touchdown through the air. Most of those yards went to junior receiver Paul Richardson who had seven receptions for 132 yards and a score.

Denker started strong in the opening drive, completing all five of his pass attempts, one of which included an acrobatic catch by David Richards who stretched his feet inbounds for a 25-yard connection. A pair of quarterback keepers by Denker got the Cats to the goal line, where Carey scored on a one-yard touchdown to complete the 88-yard drive.

Colorado only needed one play to respond, as Liufau hit Richardson on a 75-yard bomb to even the score at seven apiece. Offensively, Arizona was able to pick up where it left off, and reclaimed the lead with a 37-yard Jake Smith field goal.

Arizona got the ball back after a third-down stop by their SWAT defense, and wasted no time moving the chains as Denker hit receiver Garic Wharton for a 29-yard gain. The drive abruptly ended though, as Colorado's Jared Bell forced a fumble from Wharton off a pass in the flats which was recovered by Woods Greer III.

The Buffaloes used the momentum to their advantage, as Will Oliver nailed a 53-yard field goal to even the score at 10. After a series of punts, Oliver had another opportunity from beyond 50, but missed his 52-yard attempt that would have given Colorado the lead.

Arizona gave the ball back as soon as they got it, this time on a Denker interception by Bell, getting him his second forced turnover on the game. Colorado gained the lead shortly after on a 48-yard field goal from Oliver, putting the Buffs up 13-10.

Facing a third-and-5, Denker kept the next drive alive on a 25-yard lob pass to Samajie Grant, who made the catch despite being hit before reeling it in. On the next set of downs, Denker converted yet another third down, going five yards on a keeper. He then connected with Terrence Miller on 22-yard completion en route to a seven-yard touchdown run for Carey to give the Wildcats the edge, 17-13.

After holding Colorado to a three-and-out, Arizona got the ball back with 1:17 to go in the first half. Carey immediately took the ball 30 yards into Buffalo territory. On the following play, Denker placed the ball perfectly into receiver Nate Phillips' outstretched hands for a 44-yard touchdown connection. The unanswered 14 points by Arizona gave them the lead going into the half, 24-13.

Arizona didn't skip a beat to begin third quarter, as Denker ran 54 yards to set up a first-and-goal. The Colorado defense held though, and Smith made a field goal from 26 yards out to give the Cats a two-touchdown lead, 27-13.

Colorado closed in on their next drive, as they ran the ball down the field and capitalized via a one-yard touchdown run by Mika Adkins to bring the score to 27-20.

On their next drive, Arizona faced a fourth-and-two when head coach Rich Rodriguez decided to go for it. Miller caught a 43-yard pass from Denker on the down, taking the Cats to the one-yard line. Carey rushed for his third touchdown the following play, extending the lead to 34-20.

Colorado opened the fourth quarter with some trickery on a fake punt attempt but junior receiver Trevor Ermisch sniffed it out from the start and gave the Wildcats the ball at the Colorado 18-yard line after the turnover on downs. Carey wasted no time getting back to the end zone, rushing twice for 18 yards to get his fourth touchdown to put the Cats up 41-20.

The Buffaloes couldn't stop Arizona's momentum on the following drive either, as a Liufau pass was intercepted by sophomore safety William Parks and returned 19 yards to the Arizona 25. Senior running back Daniel Jenkins brought Arizona back into Buffalo territory with a 56-yard run and Smith made a 28-yard field goal to extend the lead, 44-20.

The score would stand as the final, as Arizona gets the win to move to 5-2 overall and 2-2 in the Pac-12. Colorado fell in the standings, with a record of 3-4 overall and 0-4 in the Pac-12.

Game 8 - Arizona 33, California 28 (Pac-12 Networks)

Nov. 2, 2013 – Memorial Stadium – Attendance: 41,874

Start: 12:37 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:28 – Weather: 67, clear

BERKELEY, Calif. – B.J. Denker went 24-of-38 through the air with 261 yards and one touchdown to lead Arizona to a 33-28 victory over Cal at Memorial Stadium on Saturday.

Arizona advances to 6-2 overall and 3-2 in Pac-12 play. The Cats are bowl eligible for the second-straight season and five of the last six seasons. The Bears fell to 1-7 overall and 0-6 in Pac-12 play.

The senior had help from an impressive receiving core led by fellow senior Terrence Miller. Miller had five receptions for 88 yards, one of which went for 60 yards. The freshman duo of Samajie Grant and Nate Phillips were also heavily targeted, as Grant had a career-high nine receptions for 78 yards and Phillips had four receptions for 44 yards with one TD.

The Cats were also successful on the ground, as running back Ka'Deem Carey netted 152 yards on 32 totes on the day.

Defensively, the Cats were led by linebackers Scooby Wright and Marquis Flowers, who both ended with double digits in tackles. Additionally, the defense forced two interceptions in the game with Jonathan McKnight and Jourdon Grandon each recording a pick.

Cal was led by quarterback Jared Goff, who went 34-of-56 for 289 yards and four touchdowns. The majority of the passing went to receiver Kenny Lawler, who gained 72 yards off six receptions, three of which were touchdowns. Running back Daniel Lasco provided the Bears with a ground attack, rushing 12 times for 71 yards.

Cal opened the game with little difficulty advancing through the air as Goff marched the Bears down the field on 8-of-10 passing for 64 yards and a touchdown. The points were scored through an 11-yard strike to Khalfani Muhammad to give them the early 7-0 lead.

Arizona was also able to move the chains with ease, though this time through the ground. Carey rushed for 23 yards on the drive, and Denker fooled the defense on a read option as he ran the ball nine yards into the end zone to tie the game at seven apiece.

Defensive lineman Sione Tuihalamaka gave the Cats a defensive presence on Cal's following drive, pressuring Goff on two consecutive drop-backs to force a three-and-out to restore Arizona possession.

After a series of punts, Arizona found themselves in a long third-and-goal from the Cal 15-yard line. A completion on a wheel route to senior running back Daniel Jenkins brought the Wildcats to the two-yard line, but they were unable to convert a fourth-down run by Carey.

The Wildcat defense immediately made up for the lost opportunity as it wrapped up Cal running back Darren Ervin in the end zone for a safety to give the Wildcats a 9-7 lead at the end of the first quarter.

Senior Jake Smith started the second quarter off strong for the Cats, as he placed a 53-yard field goal straight through the uprights, extending Arizona's lead 12-7.

The lead would quickly extend to 19-7, after freshman Phillips caught a 21-yard touchdown pass from Denker to top off a 10-play, 57-yard drive.

Cal closed the gap on their next drive, taking the ball 63 yards in 2:11 to bring the score to 19-14. The touchdown came off a 17-yard connection from Goff to Lawler. The score would stand going into halftime.

The second half opened with a big catch and run by Miller. The senior broke three tackles on his way to a 60-yard completion from Denker to bring the Cats to the Cal 15-yard line. On a following third-and-11, Denker tried the touchdown pass to Carey but Cal's Hardy Nickerson was called for the pass interference, bringing the ball to the two-yard line. After two goal-line stops by the Bears, Denker was able to get a one-yard touchdown run, bringing the lead to 26-14.

California had the next score of the game as Lawler made a one-handed catch on a three-yard completion from Goff to close in on Arizona, 26-21.

After Arizona was stopped and the Bears seemingly began to gain momentum, McKnight shut down Cal's drive by netting his first interception of the season. Shortly after, Denker scored on another keeper touchdown, this one from 14 yards out to give the Wildcats the 33-21 lead.

On a Cal fourth-and-two, Grandon recorded his second interception on the year by picking off a Goff pass in the Arizona end zone.

The Wildcats entered clock-burning mode late in the game, but Cal closed in 33-28 with 1:42 left after Goff completed yet another touchdown pass to Lawler. The 29-yard reception gave Lawler his third touchdown of the day.

The Bears attempted the onside kick, but Arizona recovered and moved the chains to end the game at 33-28.

Game 9 - UCLA 31, Arizona 26 (ESPN)

Nov. 9, 2013 – Arizona Stadium – Attendance: 51,531
Start: 8:15 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:13 – Weather: 72, fair

TUCSON, Ariz. – The Wildcats scored 16 of the game's final 23 points and held UCLA to just 10 second-half points, but fell short against the 16th-ranked Bruins, 31-26, in front of 51,531 fans at Arizona Stadium on Homecoming.

For the 12th-straight game, Ka'Deem Carey rushed for over 100 yards, picking up 149 yards on the ground including a four-yard, second-quarter touchdown run, his 40th career rushing score.

The Wildcats trailed by 14 points early at one point in the second half, but two B.J. Denker to Nate Phillips touchdown hookups kept the Cats close and gave the Wildcats a pair of chances to take the lead late. UA began drives with 6:06 and 2:33 remaining in the fourth quarter trailing by five points; the drives would end in a three-and-out and an interception, respectively.

Denker completed 20 of 33 pass attempts for 186 yards and recording two passing touchdowns. Phillips led the Wildcats in receiving with eight catches for 97 yards and two touchdowns.

Arizona recorded a season-high four sacks. Junior Tra'Mayne Bondurant led the Arizona defense with 10 total tackles. Seniors Sione Tuihalamaka and Tevin Hood accounted for two forced fumbles, one of which the Wildcats recovered.

It was all UCLA in the first quarter as the Bruins scored touchdowns on their first two drives of the game to go up 14-3. UCLA's defense contained Arizona to only a field goal, while quarterback Brett Hundley passed and rushed for a touchdown. The Wildcats scored the game's first points with a field goal to take a 3-0 lead. After receiving to start the game, Arizona's offense drove 48 yards down the field for senior Jake Smith to kick a 44 yard field goal.

UCLA wasted no time and responded immediately with a touchdown in its next drive. On the Bruins' first play of the game, Hundley aired out a deep pass to Shaquell Evans for a 66-yard touchdown to take a 7-3 lead.

The Bruins extended their lead to 14-3 after getting the ball back when Arizona's offense failed to convert a fourth-down attempt on UCLA's 16-yard line. Hundley capped a 12-play, 84-yard Bruins' drive with a 14-yard touchdown scramble.

Arizona cut the Bruins lead to 14-10 in the second quarter after Carey powered into the end zone for a four-yard touchdown. The touchdown was Carey's 11th of the season. Arizona's drive started on the UCLA 25-yard line after the Bruins failed to convert a fake punt attempt on fourth down.

With 16 seconds remaining in the half, Hundley found Evans for a touchdown once again on a four-yard strike to give the Bruins a 21-10 lead at intermission. Hundley and running back Damien Thigpen led the UCLA offense to cover 90 yards in 16 plays.

Both teams recorded field goals and turned the ball over once in the third quarter as UCLA led Arizona, 24-13 after the third.

The Bruins started the second half with the ball and tacked on three more points to their lead as kicker Kaim Fairbairn notched a 34-yard field goal to cap off an 11-play, 59-yard drive.

Following UCLA's field goal, Arizona threatened to score a touchdown as the UA offense marched 78 yards down the field on 11 plays. However, UCLA's defense forced Carey to fumble as he dove into the end zone, resulting in a UCLA touchback.

Smith recorded his second field goal of the game, cutting UCLA's lead to 24-13. The field goal came after senior Tevin Hood stripped UCLA's Thigpen of the ball, allowing Arizona's offense to drive 48 yards and kick a field goal.

Denker threw a 15 yard touchdown pass to Phillips to trail UCLA, 24-19, early in the fourth quarter. After UCLA punted to start the fourth quarter, Arizona handed the ball off to Carey six times as the Tucson native rushed 61 yards on the drive, helping the Cats reach UCLA territory. Senior Daniel Jenkins added seven more yards setting up Denker's 15-yard scoring toss to freshman Phillips.

Arizona's five point deficit was short-lived as UCLA linebacker Jack Myles came on offense for UCLA and on his sixth carry of the game, Myles exploded for a 66-yard rushing touchdown for UCLA to regain a two touchdown lead. Myles, a true freshman who started the game on defense, led the Bruins with 120 yards on just six carries, an average of 20 yards a tout, including the 66-yard score.

However, it took only three minutes for Arizona to march back down to the red zone and score a touchdown to cut UCLA's lead back to one score. Denker connected with the freshman Phillips for a second touchdown, cutting UCLA's lead back to one score.

After a pair of defensive stops, UA's offense would receive two cracks at taking the lead. The Wildcat offense would sputter and fail to pick up a first down on either of the possessions. The comeback bid fell short when Denker's fourth-down pass was intercepted by Ishmael Adams with 1:57 remaining in the game.

Game 10 - Washington State 24, Arizona 17 (Pac-12 Networks)

Nov. 16, 2013 – Arizona Stadium – Attendance: 42,080
Start: 12:07 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:03 – Weather: 72, clear

Tucson, Ariz. – Arizona's two-minute offense came up short on UA's final drive as the Wildcats fell 24-17 at home to Washington State to move to 6-4 on the season.

Quarterback B.J. Denker threw for one touchdown and racked up 200 yards passing to go along with 76 yards on the ground. With 132 yards, Ka'Deem Carey rushed for more than 100 yards for his 13th-straight game. Carey also had a pair of touchdowns, one rushing and one receiving.

The Cougars took an early lead with a 15-yard rushing touchdown by Marcus Mason with seven minutes left in the first. They continued their scoring as the Arizona defense held the Cougars to a field goal to make the score 10-0 in WSU's favor.

After two unanswered scores, the Wildcats rushed down the field with under two minutes left in the first quarter. On the drive, Carey began with a 13-yard rush, which then resulted in Phillips recording 18 yards between a rush and a pass. Carey recorded a 30-yard rushing touchdown to cut the lead 10-7.

To begin the scoring in the second quarter, the Cats successfully collected four first downs that ended with Denker connecting with Carey for a seven-yard pass. The extra point was the second successful kick by Jake Smith. The drive gave the Cats the lead, 14-10.

Despite UA's defensive efforts, Connor Halliday connected a 23-yard pass touchdown to River Cracraft to start the second half scoring. Immediately following the Cougar's drive, the Cats were able to tie the game, 17-17, with a field goal by Smith.

The remainder of the third quarter went scoreless but with less than three minutes left in the fourth quarter, the Cougars drove 80 yards in 10 plays, punctuated by a 25-yard Halliday touchdown pass to Isaiah Myers to give the Cougars a 24-17 lead.

The Wildcats began their final drive with 2:15 remaining and drove 62 yards to the Washington State 13-yard line. UA ran out of time, however, when Denker's final hurl toward the endzone forced Arizona's receiver out-of-bounds for no catch.

Game 11 - Arizona 42, Oregon 16 (ABC/ESPN2)

Nov. 23, 2013 – Arizona Stadium – Attendance: 45,777

Start: 1:37 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:04 – Weather: 50, overcast, rain

TUCSON, Ariz. - A stellar defensive effort and a record-breaking performance from Ka'Deem Carey helped Arizona upset fifth-ranked Oregon, 42-16, giving the Wildcats their first victory over a top-five opponent since a 2007 victory over the Ducks.

Arizona held Oregon to 16 points and 506 yards; the Ducks averaged better than 50 points and 580 yards per game entering the contest. The Wildcats, who led 28-9 at the half, held Oregon to a single score in the second half. Both the 16 total and seven second-half points were season-lows for Oregon.

Carey rushed for 208 yards, giving him 3,915 career yards, surpassing Trung Canidate's 3,824 accumulated from 1996-99. Additionally, Carey found the endzone four times on the afternoon, giving the junior 49 career touchdowns, setting the record for career touchdowns, one better than Art Luppino.

B.J. Denker completed 19 of 22 passes for 178 yards and two scores and rushed for 102 yards.

The Wildcats grabbed momentum on the first play from scrimmage when Marcus Mariota's pass appeared to be headed harmlessly toward the sideline until Shaquille Richardson leaped and tossed the ball back in bounds to a waiting Scooby Wright. It marked the first interception of the season for Mariota, who had gone 343 passes without a pick.

The Cats cashed in on the opportunity with a nine-play, 45-yard touchdown drive capped off by Carey's six-yard TD scamper. After the defense forced a three-and-out, the Wildcats drove 59 yards in 10 plays and B.J. Denker found Nate Phillips for a score.

Oregon got on the scoreboard with a Matt Wogan 33-yard field goal with 2:49 remaining in the quarter.

The Cats added on in the second quarter when Denker found Terrence Miller for the five-yard score capping a 16-play, 83-yard drive. Miller finished with a career-high nine catches for 88 yards on senior day.

Oregon responded with its first touchdown of the game. Mariota found Pharaoh Brown for a one-yard score.

Driving near the end of the second half, Oregon's offense appeared to be rolling until Tra'Mayne Bondurant forced a fumble, one of four Oregon turnovers on the day.

The Ducks' next drive fell short on fourth down and the Cats cashed in with 18 seconds remaining in the half when Carey scored from one yard out.

Carey scored again with 2:07 remaining in the third quarter, scoring from nine yards out to make it 35-9 Wildcats.

Oregon inched closer when Mariota tossed a two-yard touchdown pass to Josh Huff to bring Oregon within three scores.

Carey's record-breaking 49th score with 8:59 remaining was his fourth of the game and capped an important drive which took 5:12 seconds off the clock.

Oregon's final drive reached Arizona's 13-yard line before Mariota tossed his second interception of the game and the season. Richardson picked off Mariota to seal the Arizona victory.

Game 12 - Arizona State 58, Arizona 21 (ESPN)

Nov. 30, 2013 – Sun Devil Stadium – Attendance: 72,542

Start: 7:30 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:20 – Weather: 64, cloudy

TEMPE, Ariz. – Arizona football (7-5) stumbled in a 58-21 loss to ASU (10-2) in front of 72,542 fans, the 12th-largest crowd in Sun Devil Stadium history.

Despite the loss, junior running back Ka'Deem Carey collected his 15th-consecutive 100-yard rushing game, a new Pac-12 Conference record. Carey rushed for 157 yards on 32 attempts. Adding to the offense was senior quarterback B.J. Denker, who threw for 175 yards. Arizona rushed for three scores, each coming from a different Wildcat, with Denker, Carey and Garic Wharton each collecting a touchdown.

Defensively, Jake Fischer led the team with 10 tackles followed by Marquis Flowers and Jared Tevis with eight each. Senior defensive lineman Sione Tuihalamaka had six tackles, including three sacks - the most for an Arizona player since Rick Elmore in 2010.

The Cats had five turnovers on the night, including a 64-yard touchdown return on an interception by Damarious Randall with 7:24 remaining in the third quarter when Arizona was driving, attempting to cut into what was, at the time, a 16-point ASU lead. UA forced one turnover of its own.

Opening the game, ASU was held to a field goal on their opening drive. Unable to score in its first drive, Arizona was forced to punt. ASU was once again held to another field goal by Zane Gonzalez to give the Sun Devils a 6-0 lead.

Despite two strong offensive plays made by the Wildcats on their subsequent drive, they were unable to score. During the drive, Denker completed a pass to Trey Griffey for 16 yards followed by an 11-yard keeper.

ASU continued their scoring with a 38-yard touchdown pass from Taylor Kelly to Darwin Rodgers that gave them a 13-0 lead.

After having gone for the fourth down, Arizona turned the ball over at midfield, which allowed D.J. Foster to continue the Sun Devil scoring with a 14-yard rushing score.

With less than 10 minutes to play in the half, a pass by Denker was intercepted by Alden Darby. On the drive, the Sun Devils were able to score another touchdown to lead the Wildcats, 27-0.

With the Arizona offense back on the field, the Wildcats were able to score their first touchdown of the night after making their way down the field including two long passes, a 23-yard pass to Griffey and 30-yard pass to Wharton. The rushing touchdown by Denker was his 11th of the season and cut the lead to 27-7. Jake Smith made the extra point.

With momentum in Arizona's hands, the defense came up with a big stop with just over three minutes left in the half after a deflected pass by Shaquille Richardson. With the ball back in hand, the Wildcats began the drive with a 28-yard rush by Ka'Deem Carey. Following was a 13-yard run by Denker. With a missed field goal attempt, ASU came up with the ball to end the half.

In their final drive of the half, Kelly completed a 50-yard pass to move down the field. In field goal range, the Sun Devils opened the lead to 30-7 to end the half.

To begin the second half, the Wildcats opened the drive with four rushes by Carey for a total of 52 yards. The momentum led to another Arizona touchdown to make the score 14-30. The eight-yard rushing touchdown by Carey was his 50th career touchdown.

Following a strong defensive effort, the Wildcats were unable to score in their second drive of the half. Denker's pass was intercepted by Damarious Randall and ran for a 64-yard touchdown to make the score 37-14.

A strong defensive effort by Arizona gave the ball back to the offense with four minutes left in the third quarter. In full speed, Carey had three back-to-back rushes for 29 yards. A nine-yard completion to Terrence Miller provided gave the Cats additional yardage. Following was a 21-yard rush by Denker that was then fumbled but picked up by Wharton. The pick up resulted in a touchdown for the Cats.

Immediately following, a four-play drive by ASU and a 61-yard pass to Jaelen Strong gave the Sun Devils another touchdown to make the score 44-21.

On the kickoff return, there was an Arizona fumble giving the ball back to ASU. On the drive, ASU ended with another touchdown after a seven-yard rushing touchdown by Foster.

With a 51-21 lead, the Sun Devils prevented the Wildcats from completing a fourth-down conversion providing ASU's offense another hand at the ball with just less than 12 minutes in the game. ASU continued its offensive momentum with another touchdown by De'Marieya Nelson to end the night's scoring.

Game 13 - Arizona 42, Boston College 19 (ESPN)

Dec. 31, 2013 – Independence Stadium – Attendance: 36,917

Start: 11:32 a.m. – Time of Game: 3:06 – Weather: 36, partly cloudy

SHREVEPORT, La. - University of Arizona football defeated Boston College, 42-19, in the AdvoCare V100 Bowl Game in record-breaking fashion, Monday, at Independence Stadium. Senior quarterback B.J. Denker was named Offensive MVP and sophomore William Parks was named Defensive MVP. The victory gave UA eight wins for a second-consecutive year, marking the first back-to-back eight-win seasons since 2008-09. Along with bowl game records, multiple school records were also broken for the Wildcats.

The six Wildcat touchdowns tied the Bowl record for most touchdowns. Arizona is now the seventh team to score six in the bowl game. The Wildcats also recorded the most first downs in the bowl's history with 49. With 529 yards, the Wildcats have the third-highest yardage in an AdvoCare V100 Bowl game.

The Wildcats' offensive clinic was led by Denker's 275 passing yards. True freshman Nate Phillips had 193 receiving yards and recorded the first 100-yard receiving game for Arizona on the season. He also broke the school record for most receiving yards in a bowl game as well as most receiving yards in a game by a freshman in school history.

Ka'Deem Carey finished off his junior season with 16-straight 100-plus yard games with his 169-yard performance. As well, he has officially become the all-time all-purpose leader in yardage. Prior to Carey, the record was 5,392 yards, held by Dennis Northcutt.

On defense, the Wildcats held the Eagles to just two touchdowns and two field goals. Jake Fischer tied his career-high tackles with 14. Jourdon Grandon was right behind Fischer with 12 tackles, followed by Marquis Flowers and Tra'Mayne Bondurant with six and seven tackles, respectively.

Opening the game, Boston College received the ball. Starting the drive, Eagle quarterback Chase Rettig threw the first interception of the game. Jared Tevis caught his first interception of the season and brought the Wildcat offense on the field until a fumble forced by Manuel Asprilla.

With just over eight minutes left, the Wildcat offense got back to work and two long passes for a combined 79 yards by Phillips led the Cats to the first score of the game. Carey had a two-yard run to put the Cats ahead 7-0 after the extra point by Jake Smith.

On the Eagles' third drive of the game, BC marched down the field but was held to a field goal by the Arizona defense. In the Eagles first drive of the second quarter, Boston College was inside the Arizona 20-yard line when Keoni Bush-Loo had a momentum-changing sack for a loss of 12 yards forcing the Eagles to kick a 41-yard field goal to make the score 7-6, in favor of Arizona.

Following a muffed Boston College punt, the Eagles took over in Arizona territory with under six minutes remaining in the half. The Eagles, attempting to take their first lead of the game, were facing a third and four from Arizona's 34 when Parks intercepted Rettig and returned it 69 yards for the score to put Arizona ahead 14-6. The interception return was the longest for a Wildcat since the 2011 91-yard return by Robert Golden against Washington.

With less than three minutes in the half, the Arizona offense was back on the field. Phillips began with a first-down pass for 13-yards. Carey and Denker provided a handful of runs leading up to a 26-yard touchdown pass to Trey Griffey for his first career touchdown catch.

The Wildcats received the ball to begin the second half. A quick offensive start by the Cats led to a touchdown to make the score 28-6. A sideline pass to Phillips for 23 yards gave way for a five-yard touchdown run by Carey.

With seven minutes to play, the Arizona offense kept the momentum going with a 41-yard pass to Phillips. Following 23 yards worth of rushing by Carey, a 12-yard pass to Grant, the Cats scored another touchdown by a rush by Denker. With under five minutes in the third quarter, Arizona was up 35-6.

The Arizona defense once again held the Eagles from scoring and allowed the Wildcat offense to take control of the ball to end the third quarter and begin the fourth quarter. Carey had a 19-yard rush to begin the offense. Additionally, Daniel Jenkins carried the ball for a total of 12 yards on the drive. A nine-yard completion to Phillips put the Cats in a position for Griffey to make his second touchdown reception of the game. With under 14 minutes in the game, the Cats were up 42-6.

Trying to build momentum, Boston College was able to move down the field for their first score of the second half. The drive included a long pass by Rettig for 35 yards. Andre Williams recorded the rushing touchdown after a 4-yard run. After a failed two-point conversion, the score was 42-12.

The Wildcats would kill the clock on their subsequent drive with a heavy dosage of Carey and Jenkins. The 6:50 drive covered 69 yards and left Boston College with just 5:10 on the clock.

Boston College was able to score its second touchdown of the half with 40 seconds left in the game. Tyler Rouse had the rushing touchdown for 20 yards to make the score 42-19 to end the game.

Dick Tomey, Arizona's Winningest Coach

The end of the 2000 season saw Dick Tomey resign after 14 years at Arizona. More than two dozen counterparts had coached at the other nine league schools during his tenure. Tomey led Arizona to its two best seasons and left a strong legacy as a coach-educator and the winningest coach in UA history. He later was head coach at San Jose State for five years.

Tomey at Arizona:

- Nine winning seasons; overall UA Coaching Record: 95-64-4
- Top 10 in career victories by active Division I-A coaches at time
- Pac-10 Conference Record: 60-49-4
- No. 8 on all-time Pac-10 coaching victories chart at time
- One of four coaches to win 12 games in 85 years of Pac-10
- Pac-10 Coach of the Year, 1992
- 20 All-Americans, 43 first-team All-Pac-10 players; Four Pac-10 POYs
- 1998 Provost Award for Outstanding Teaching
- Graduation Rate of 67 percent in final report; best in Pac-10, 10th in nation
- Seven Bowl Games, four bowl victories
- Arizona's highest national final ranking (No. 4 in 1998)
- AFCA Western Regional Coach of the Year 1982
- Eight Major National Player Awards; Four Morris Trophy winners

Conference Affiliation Notes

Arizona's first conference affiliation was with the Border Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, founded in 1931. Charter members were Arizona, Arizona State Teachers College-Flagstaff (now NAU), Arizona State Teachers College-Tempe (now ASU), New Mexico and New Mexico A&M (now New Mexico State). Subsequent additions were Texas Tech (1932-35), Texas Mines (now UTEP, 1935-61), Hardin-Simmons (1941-61) and West Texas Teachers College (now West Texas A&M, 1941-61). The league was disbanded in 1961. . . Arizona played as an independent in 1961, transitioning to membership in the Western Athletic Conference, which began in July 1962. Charter members were Arizona, Arizona State, Utah, New Mexico, Brigham Young and Wyoming. In 1967 UTEP and Colorado State joined. Arizona and ASU departed for the Pacific-10 Conference beginning with the 1978 football season, joining California, UCLA, USC, Stanford, Oregon, Oregon State, Washington and Washington State. Colorado and Utah accepted invitations to join the league in June 2010 and began play in the newly branded Pac-12 Conference in 2011.

All-Time Assistant Football Coaches

The following are known and listed UA assistant coaches, largely from 1959 to the present. The names in parentheses indicate the head coach during each tenure. Modern-day graduate assistants and part-time coaches are not listed. Individuals who served as head freshman coach are listed as assistants. (Current staff in bold face; unit assignment noted where known)

Some Historical Notes

*Key dates in early Arizona football include the first collegiate game, against Arizona State on Thanksgiving Day in 1899, Nov. 22, when the Territorial Cup was first awarded... Another is Dec. 26, 1921, UA's first bowl appearance in the East-West Christmas Bowl in San Diego... The first game in Arizona Stadium was played against Cal Tech on Oct. 12, 1929... The first night game was against San Diego State in September 1931.

*The war years in 1943 and 1944 were not much different for Arizona than some teams nationally, with no football played. Half of the teams in final AP poll of 1943 included service teams and the service academies. There were five bowls after the 1944 season — the Rose, Orange, Cotton, Sugar and Sun. ... Some years later, the UA Student Union Memorial Building incorporated the bell from the U.S.S. Arizona, sunk during the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941. An electronic rendition of the bell still tolls every 15 minutes during the day from speakers atop the UA Administration Building.

*1958 was the first year of Arizona's pending transition to the Western Athletic Conference, with it not playing enough league games (3) to qualify for the Border Conference title. That situation lasted through 1960, and Arizona played officially as an independent in 1961 before beginning WAC play in 1962.

*Arizona's first televised game was broadcast statewide on Nov. 28, 1953, with the Cats at Arizona State. The game was not a network telecast.

Super Bowl Wildcats

Former UA players have 43 overall player appearances in the NFL Championship tilt. Three former Wildcats played in Super Bowl XLII in 2008 in Glendale, Ariz., for the most in any one season. Retired linebacker Tedy Bruschi and offensive lineman Glenn Parker lead all UA players with five Super Bowls — all of Bruschi's with the New England Patriots and Parker in four with the Buffalo Bills and one with the New York Giants. Former Wildcat Bruschi, the NCAA career sack leader when he left college, has the best Super Bowl jewelry collection with three Championship rings as the starting middle linebacker for the Patriots in the 2000s. In 2008, starting linebacker Antonio Pierce and backup DB Michael Johnson took home championship rings for the New York Giants over Bruschi's Pats.

Scholar-Athlete Awards

2012 Pac-12 Football Scholar-Athlete - John Bonano

John Bonano earned NCAA and Pac-12 Postgraduate Scholarships, the Pac-12 Tom Hansen Medal. He was named a 2012 CoSIDA Second-Team Academic All-American, the 2012 Pac-12 Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year, was a three-time Pac-12 All-Academic honoree.

In 2012, Bonano ranked fifth in the Pac-12 in scoring and No. 1 among kickers with 7.8 points per game. In his final campaign, he was 58-of-59 in PATs and 14-of-20 in field goals. He also ran in for a two-point conversion against ASU. Bonano's PAT with 0:19 to play in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl gave the Wildcats the go-ahead score to win the game, 49-48. He owns the school record for consecutive PAT kicks made with 73.

Additionally, Bonano earned a 2013 Pillar of Excellence Award, given out by Arizona's Honors College to distinguished graduating seniors. On March 3, Bonano was honored by the Southern Arizona Chapter of the National Football Foundation as a 2013 Scholar-Athlete. He earned his degree in physiology in December 2012.

2007 ToyoTires Pac-10 Scholar-Athlete - Spencer Larsen

A two-time first-team Academic All-Pac-10 selection, Arizona linebacker Spencer Larsen became the first league football player named in the initial group of student-athletes to receive the conference's new Scholar-Athlete Award. Larsen's 3.70 grade point average in regional development, his first-team All-Pac-10 playing honor and his exemplary citizenship and scholastic standing helped him earn the award. He led the Pac-10 with 131 tackles his senior year, led Arizona with 15.5 tackles for loss, was in on seven fumble plays (4 FR and 3 FF) and knocked down five passes. He finished his career with a total of 312 tackles. He was a 2007 finalist for the Wuerffel Trophy awarded annually to a top citizen-athlete among national collegiate football players, and an All-America selection by rivals.com (2nd team) and cfn.com (3rd).

2003 Woody Hayes Scholar-Athlete - Jason Johnson

University of Arizona senior quarterback Jason Johnson won the 2003 Woody Hayes National Scholar-Athlete Award in January 2003, honoring an exemplary year as the outstanding man in Division I athletics.

Johnson, who made outstanding appearances in both the East-West Shrine Game and Hula Bowl, earned Academic All-Pac-10 first-team quarterback honors for the second consecutive year, was a Verizon District VIII first-team Academic pick, won a berth on the American Football Coaches' "Good Works Team" and completed his final year at Arizona with more than a dozen single-season, career or UA top-10 marks in passing and total offense. He was named the team's Most Valuable Offensive Player for 2002 and elected a co-captain by his teammates. He was a Canadian Football League quarterback and Grey Cup Champion for Edmonton after his graduation.

Johnson completed his undergraduate studies in 2001 with a 3.79 grade point average in business management, then was a honors graduate student in religious studies his final two semesters. Among his community activities were the Fellowship for Christian Athletes, Drug Free School Program, youth basketball coaching, Adopt a Family, Race for a Cure Cancer Walk and numerous youth-oriented speaking engagements.

1996 Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete - Wayne Wyatt

A two-year starting center on the Wildcat football teams of 1995-96 and eventually one of three team captains, Wayne Wyatt earned respectable numbers on the field. But his numbers off the field captured national attention — namely his 3.941 grade point average. He was selected as one of the 16 National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame National Scholar-Athletes in 1996, with an $18,000 scholarship for post-graduate studies, which he used for dental school. Wyatt was named to the 1996 GTE Academic All-America football first team by the College Sports Information Directors of America, Arizona's fifth player to earn first-team scholastic honors.

Wyatt earned Pacific-10 All-Academic and GTE All-District 8 honors. He was honored as one of the UA's distinguished scholar-athletes, named every semester to the Dean's List and earned Phi Beta Kappa honors as well. He received a bachelor's degree in philosophy in August 1995 and a master's degree in business administration in May 1997.

2014 Arizona Football Media Guide

National Players of the Year

1990 Jim Thorpe Award - Darryll Lewis

Arizona defensive back Darryll Lewis won the 1990 Jim Thorpe Award as the country's top defensive back. Lewis, who was inducted into Arizona's Sports Hall of Fame in 1995, finished his career with 14 interceptions, played in the Hula Bowl, was a third-round NFL pick and is a regular NFL starter. He was the 1990 Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year.

Lewis was a game-turning defensive back; such as the time his interception return of 70 yards for a score helped UA beat UCLA. Or his goal-line stop of scrambling Oregon quarterback Bill Musgrave at the goal line to preserve another victory. Those were huge plays by a big-time player, but a few of many he provided as a four-year letterman from 1987-1990.

1993 Outland Trophy - Rob Waldrop

Wildcat defensive tackle Rob Waldrop capped a tremendous career as the winner of the Outland Trophy for the nation's top interior lineman in 1993.

Opponents double- and triple-teamed him at times in an effort to contain his pass rush and run-stopping techniques. Among his 53 tackles that year were 14 for losses, including eight sacks — a remarkable feat for an interior lineman. In his final two seasons, he had 18 sacks and spearheaded the play, which spawned the Wildcats' "Desert Swarm" nickname. He also won the Football Writer's inaugural Defensive Player of the Year Award, now called the Bronko Nagurski Award. He was named UPI Lineman of the Year as well.

In a superior effort at the 1994 Fiesta Bowl, Waldrop helped pin Miami with its back to the goal and came up with another sack, helping Arizona beat Miami, 29-0.

1994 Lou Groza Award - Steve McLaughlin

Arizona's Steve McLaughlin topped a remarkable four-year career in 1994 by winning the Lou Groza Collegiate Place Kicker Award as the nation's best — the player you want to kick one in the clutch. He certainly did in 1994, earning consensus first-team All-America honors.

He made 80 percent of his kicks during the season, including an amazing 12-of-16 from beyond 40 yards and 3-of-5 from beyond 50 yards. Subtracting a couple of monster tries at the end of periods, he was 23-of-27 from 57 yards and in. He led the Pac-10 in scoring with 95 points in 1994 and was first in the league and second nationally with 2.1 field goals per game. He kicked a career-best 54-yard field goal against California to earn an AT&T Long Distance Award for the longest kick of the week. He made all 26 of his point-after kicks. He was an accomplished pooch punter from field goal formation and kicked off his final two years as well.

He finished his career with 57 field goals in 81 tries and made 112-of-119 PATs for 283 points, third on the UA's all-time scoring list.

McLaughlin acquired the 'let-me-kick-it' attitude that is so critical to the trade. He had some misses that might have turned games but kept his confidence growing. One big day for McLaughlin came when his three field goals helped beat No. 1 Washington in 1992.

1998 Mosi Tatupu Award - Chris McAlister

Arizona cornerback Chris McAlister capped an outstanding three-year Wildcat career by winning the 1998 Mosi Tatupu Special Teams Player of the Year Award as the nation's top player in the kicking game.

McAlister, a unanimous All-America pick and finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award honoring the best collegiate defensive back that year as well, was involved in Arizona's special teams from both sides of the kick.

In 1998, he set the tone for the Cats' big-play 12-1 season by returning the opening kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown at Hawai'i on the first play of the year, tying his own school record set in 1996 against UCLA. He blocked punts in each of the final two regular-season games of the year and had a third deflected punt. He returned a punt 69 yards for a score against Northeast Louisiana and returned an interception 60 yards for a score against Washington State to become only the seventh player in NCAA history to have scored on kickoff, punt and interception returns in a single season.

He was a defensive player who averaged 38 yards per game in all-purpose yardage: eight kickoff returns for a 29.5 mark, five punt returns for a 20.8 mark and five interception returns for a 12.8 figure. What it meant to the Cats for three years was like having a 12th player on the field each time McAlister took his place somewhere among the action. His 18 career interceptions placed him No. 3 on UA's all-time chart, but his special teams' play was unmatched.

2007 Jim Thorpe Award - Antoine Cason

Arizona cornerback Antoine Cason became UA's second Jim Thorpe Award winner and the latest Wildcat consensus All-American since 1999 with his superlative senior season in 2007. Among his highlight-reel plays in 2007 were interception returns of 42 yards for a score against Oregon, a 56-yard punt return for a score against the Ducks and a 60-yard interception return for a score against Oregon State. He had three other interceptions on the year to give him a career total of 15, fourth best in school history. His 165 yard on INT returns was just shy of the school record 191 yards set by Thorpe Award winner Darryll Lewis in 1990. Cason was a two-time first-team All-Pac-10 selection. In 2007 he was named first-team All-America by Walter Camp, the Associated Press, The Sporting News, CBS Sports, ESPN.com, SI.com, Rivals.com and cfn.com. His electrifying play was no more special than his off-the-field comportment as a UA team spokesman and leader throughout his career. His 'Cason Cares' charity drive for cancer research in 2007 typified his renaissance leadership. He was Arizona's Ruby Award winner as the top male student-athlete for the 2007-08 school year. But his senior year's action on the field was special. He finished with 71 tackles, five interception, 14 passes defensed, two forced fumbles, a sack and four tackles for loss. His four returns for scores (2 INT, 2 PR) set a UA standard.

National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame

Coach Warren Woodson - 1989 Inductee

Arizona's head coach from 1952-56, Warren Woodson was inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989. He served as Art Luppino's head coach during his NCAA-leading rushing seasons in 1954 and 1955. During his career, he coached six NCAA rushing leaders. He led the Wildcats to a 26-22-3 record during his four seasons in Tucson.

Linebacker Ricky Hunley - 1998 Inductee

One of many defensive stars at Arizona over the years, All-America linebacker Ricky Hunley was a hugely physical presence in the early 1980s and became the first Wildcat elected to the College Football Hall of Fame, with induction in 1998. He turned down a Pittsburgh Pirates baseball offer to play football at Arizona. From 1980 to 1983, Hunley was in on an amazing 566 tackles and was a consensus first-team All-American in both 1982 and 1983. He was a three-time All-Pacific-10 Conference selection and was the 1983 Pac-10 Co-Defensive Player of the Year. A team captain in 1983, he also earned Arizona's Most Valuable Player honor in helping lead the Wildcats to a 7-3-1 record. For several seasons, he played alongside his younger brother, LaMonte, also a Wildcat linebacker. Hunley led the Wildcats in unassisted tackles every year from 1981-83 with totals of 74, 100 and 99, respectively. He also set a school record recovering five fumbles in 1983. Now a professional coach, Hunley played in the NFL for seven years and participated in Super Bowls XXI and XXII as a Denver Bronco. He has coached at Southern California and Missouri and served on the Board of Directors for the Black Coaches Association and the Minority Issues Committee of the AFCA.

Coach Jim Young - 1999 Inductee

Former University of Arizona coach Jim Young joined several other coaches — Don Coryell and Jerry Claiborne — and the likes of Herschel Walker, Billy Kilmer, John Hannah, Ross Browner and several other storied players in the 1999 class of inductees into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame. Young, retired in Tucson, had three successful head coaching stints, including his first at Arizona from 1973 to 1976, at Purdue from 1977 to 1981 and a tour of duty at Army from 1983 to 1990. Overall, he won more than 60 percent of his games, at 120-71-2, turning around programs at each stop. At UA, he was 31-13 and posted two 9-2 seasons in 1974 and 1975, among UA's best ever. His 1973 Arizona club finished 8-3 and tied for UA's first conference title in 40 years. At Purdue, he was 38-19-1 with three bowl victories. Coaching the Cadets, he was 51-39-1 with a 2-1 bowl record. Young, who holds bachelor's and master's degrees from Bowling Green, employed passing attacks at Arizona and Purdue and installed the wishbone at Army to reach national rushing prominence. Young completed his football career as an offensive assistant on Dick Tomey's 1992-94 Arizona staffs after Tomey talked him into delaying his retirement.

Coach Darrell Mudra - 2000 Inductee

Darrell Mudra retired from collegiate football in 1988 bringing an end to a Hall of Fame career, which boasts a 200-81-4 record and two national championships. He started his collegiate head-coaching career at Adams State in 1959 and led the team to the 1962 Mineral Bowl, where they defeated Northern Illinois 23-20. In 1963 he became the head coach at North Dakota State where he successfully turned the program around from a 0-10 record the year before, to a 1964 Mineral Bowl victory. In 1965 he won his first national championship defeating Grambling 20-7 in the Pecan Bowl. He then coached the University of Arizona for two seasons and led them to the 1968 Sun Bowl. After a successful stint at Western Illinois, Mudra coached Florida State for two years before going to Eastern Illinois where he won the Division II National Championship. During Coach Mudra's tenure at Northern Iowa, he led the team to the I-AA semifinals in 1985 and 1987. The Panthers were ranked fourth nationally at the end of the 1987 season and lost to the eventual national champion Northeast Louisiana 44-41 in overtime. He was named Kodak Region 4 Coach of the Year in 1985 while at UNI. Mudra was nicknamed "Dr. Victory" because of his success at each level, but always shied away from all of the accolades, preferring to let his assistants and players take the credit.

Safety Chuck Cecil - 2009 Inductee

A two-time First Team Academic All-America selection (1986-87), Cecil starred for Arizona from 1984 to 1987, first under the late Larry Smith and then under former head coach Dick Tomey for his final year. He began as a recruited walk-on and finished his UA career as one of the Pac-10's noted and fearless safeties. A consensus All-American in 1987, Cecil was the Aloha Bowl MVP and a two-time first-team all-conference selection, plus earned second-team honors as a sophomore. He was named Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year in 1987 and Pac-10 Player of the Week on three occasions. A three-time Pac-10 All-Academic selection, he culminated his education as a recipient of the NCAA Top VI Award, one of the nation's top scholar-athlete citations. He was named Arizona's male winner of the the Pac-10 Conference Medal.

He holds the Arizona career record with 21 interceptions and among those returned one 100 yards for a touchdown against Arizona State in 1986, one of the most electrifying moments in UA football history. Drafted in the fourth round of the 1988 draft by the Green Bay Packers, Cecil spent seven seasons in the NFL and is currently defensive coordinator for the Tennessee Titans. Cecil has served as co-chair of the University of Arizona Medical Center Foundation campaign for UMC Trauma Center.

Defensive Tackle Rob Waldrop - 2011 Inductee

A two-time consensus All-American during his junior and senior seasons, Waldrop was the Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year in 1993, received the Outland Trophy honoring the country's top interior lineman, was voted the Top Defensive Player of the Year by the Football Writers of America (now called the Bronko Nagurski award), and was one of four finalists for the Lombardi Trophy honoring the outstanding lineman of the year. In 1992 he was voted by opposing linemen as the Pac-10's defensive winner of the Morris Award. He earned first-team All-Pacific-10 Conference honors in 1992 and 1993 and was Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week against Miami in 1992 and versus USC in 1993. He was named defensive MVP of the 1992 Sun Bowl. He earned Playboy Pigskin Preview All-America honors in 1993. During his senior season, Waldrop recorded 53 total tackles, 14 for losses, including eight sacks — a remarkable feat for an interior lineman. His play, which helped spawn the Wildcats' "Desert Swarm" nickname, was evident in the 1994 Fiesta Bowl when he helped guide Arizona to a shutout, 29-0 victory. He spearheaded an effort which helped the Wildcats lead the nation and set a Pac-10 record with 33 rushing yards allowed per game in 1993, when Arizona led the nation in total defense. He finished his Arizona career with an amazing 164 tackles for an interior lineman, with 44 tackles for loss and 22.5 sacks, which rate fifth in UA's history. Waldrop was drafted in '94 by the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs, played two seasons and later went on to a 1996 stint with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL.

2014 Arizona Football Media Guide

Defensive Tackle Tedy Bruschi - 2013 Inductee

With Bruschi as a key component, Arizona's Desert Swarm defense led the nation in scoring defense in 1992. In 1993, Desert Swarm led the nation in rushing defense and defined a squad that achieved UA's first 10-victory season, defeating Miami, 29-0, in the Fiesta Bowl. Bruschi was named Fiesta Bowl MVP.

Bruschi (1991-95) ended his career with 52 sacks, tied for the most in NCAA history. He was a consensus All-American in 1994 and a unanimous All-American in 1995.

Bruschi's celebrated senior season included the 1995 Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year honors and winning the Morris Trophy as the league's best defensive lineman. He was a two-time finalist for the Lombardi Award and graduated with 74 tackles for loss, which ranked sixth in FBS history. Bruschi was named all-conference three times and he led the Wildcats to three bowl berths under head coach Dick Tomey.

The San Francisco native was a third-round selection by the New England Patriots in the 1996 NFL Draft. Bruschi enjoyed a 13-year career, winning three Super Bowls with the franchise. The Pro Bowler was named the Associated Press' Comeback Player of the Year in 2005 following a stroke.

1921 East-West Christmas Classic - Centre (Ky.) 38, Arizona 0

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - A dominating squad from Centre (Ky.) College splashed to a 38-0 victory over Arizona in front of several thousand rain-soaked fans, spoiling Arizona's first-ever bowl game appearance.

The Praying Colonels held the Cats to zero first downs in the first half, and Arizona was unable to maintain a good drive throughout the game.

Centre's Red Roberts, one of Walter Camp's first All-America ends, scored the first touchdown five minutes into the match. Later, All-American Alvin (Bo) McMillin went over the right tackle for another score. Centre led 18-0 at the half.

The second half was much the same, as Centre dominated every phase. Just as Arizona was mounting a drive late in the third stanza, an interception ended Western hopes, and the Wildcat defense was unable to halt the potent Eastern attack. Centre's Herb Covington scored on a punt return and a sweep to seal the victory.

1949 Salad Bowl - Drake 14, Arizona 13

PHOENIX, Ariz. - Arizona couldn't overcome crucial mistakes, and the Drake Bulldogs triumphed, 14-13, before a crowd of 14,000 in nostalgia-filled Montgomery Stadium.

The feisty Midwesterners were outgained by coach Miles Casteel's troops, 355 yards to 206, but the Cats had two fumbles and an interception that ended any hope for a victory. Drake built a 14-7 halftime lead on the strength of Frank Metzger's 1-yard run and Floyd Miller's interception of Ed Wolgast for a 20-yard score. The Cats got on the board with a 15-yard Wolgast rollout.

Arizona roared back in the second half, as running back Charlie Hall romped 79 yards with the third quarter kickoff. The Cats failed to score on their first thrust after the thrilling return, but after an exchange of punts, the durable Wolgast tallied his second touchdown.

Drake carried the luck on this afternoon. Arizona's Wrinfred Tackett, one of the Border-Conference's top extra-point kickers, booted the pigskin against the left upright, the ball bounced away from the goal posts, and Drake escaped with a one-point margin.

Wolgast finished the day with 133 yards rushing, eight yards more than Drake's team total.

1968 Sun Bowl - Auburn 34, Arizona 10

EL PASO, Texas - Arizona battled Auburn on even terms for one half, but within a period of seven minutes in the second half, the Tigers scored 24 points to crush the Wildcats, 34-10, before 32,302 weather-beaten fans and a national television audience in the 34th annual Sun Bowl.

Auburn had taken the lead, 10-0, on a John Riley 52-yard field goal, tying a Sun Bowl record, and a 65-yard touchdown pass from All-SEC quarterback Loran Carter to Mickey Zofko. But the Cats were fit to be tied as Steve Hurley booted a 37-yarder after both teams exchanged turnovers. Arizona held Auburn on fourth down with under two minutes left in the half, and Arizona's Bruce Lee went to work. Two first-down pass completions set up a 12-yard toss to Hal Aranson in the end zone, tying the score 10-10 at the half.

In the third quarter, Auburn took the lead and didn't look back as Tommy Taylor scampered nine yards to put the Tigers up 17-10. Then Buddy McClinton intercepted Lee for the third time in the game and raced 32 yards to score. Auburn's next possession produced a dazzling Carter to Tim Christian 42-yard touchdown pass. Riley then kicked a 41-yard field goal to secure the victory with 11:14 left.

Auburn's Buddy McClinton was voted MVP of the game, and All-America tackle Dave Campbell was honored as the outstanding lineman.

1979 Fiesta Bowl - Pittsburgh 16, Arizona 10

TEMPE, Ariz. - The 10th-ranked Pittsburgh Panthers survived a late rally and hung on to defeat Arizona, 16-10, in the 1979 Fiesta Bowl. A national television audience was able to watch superb defensive play on both sides. Arizona's defense held Pitt to 299 yards, while the offense dented the Panther's nationally-ranked defense for 317 yards.

Pitt led 6-0 at halftime on the strength of 46- and 36-yard field goals by the game's most valuable offensive player, Mark Schubert. Arizona moved the ball well, but couldn't get the one big play it needed. The Cats drove to Pitt's 37, 26 and 22, but came up empty each time.

The Cats' trouble came on key plays. Midway through the first period, they were stopped on fourth-and-two at the Pitt 21. Arizona managed to get on the board late in the third period on a 38-yard field goal by Brett Weber, but Pitt answered with a touchdown to expand its lead to 13-3.

The Panthers appeared to have wrapped up the game when Schubert kicked his third field goal of the day with 8:02 left. But the Cats reached into their bag of tricks to get back in the game. From the Pitt 47, fullback Hubie Oliver took a pitch and launched a pass down field to Greg Jackson who caught it at the Panther one. Oliver scored on the next play.

The outcome was in doubt until Terry White picked off a Jim Krohn pass with :58 remaining. Arizona's David Liggins was voted the game's most valuable defensive player on the strength of two key interceptions of Dan Marino passes to thwart Panther drives.

1985 Sun Bowl - Arizona 13, Georgia 13

EL PASO, Texas - Arizona and Georgia each failed on late field goal attempts leaving the teams tied, 13-13, and the record Sun Bowl crowd of 52,203 going home with an empty feeling.

The teams battled on even terms for a half with Georgia's Steve Crumley booting a 37-yard field goal and Arizona's Max Zendejas adding a 22-yarder after an apparent Arizona touchdown was nullified by penalty.

The third quarter belonged to coach Larry Smith's troops, who drove 34 yards with the second-half kickoff before Zendejas nailed a 52-yard field goal. The Wildcats expanded the margin to 13-3 with 3:30 left to play in the stanza, as Martin Rudolph picked off a James Jackson pass and bolted 35 yards for a touchdown.

Georgia took the ensuing kickoff and drove to the Arizona 28, where Davis Jacobs kicked a 45-yarder to begin the Bulldog rally. Two plays later, James DeBow fumbled, and Georgia's Tony Flack recovered to set up Lars Tate's game-tying 2-yard run. Jacobs missed a 44-yarder with 1:14 to play. The Cats then used a 25-yard David Adams run to give Zendejas a 39-yard try with :10 remaining. However, his attempt was wide-right and short.

Zendejas and Georgia center Peter Anderson won outstanding player honors. Arizona finished the season at 8-3-1, while Georgia wound up 7-3-2.

1986 Aloha Bowl - Arizona 30, North Carolina 21

HONOLULU, Hawaii - Arizona capitalized on big defensive plays to coast to its first-ever post-season victory, 30-21, over North Carolina. All-America free safety Chuck Cecil was the ring-leader of the Cat defense that forced five fumbles with bone-jarring hits.

The Arizona offense showed spark as well. David Adams closed his sterling career with 81 yards rushing and a touchdown and three catches for 77 yards. Offensive MVP Alfred Jenkins finished 12-of-28 passing for 187 yards and a score.

But it was coach Larry Smith's defense which made the big plays to set up points. A Jim Birmingham fumble recovery led to a 31-yard Gary Coston field goal to begin the attack. Later, Boomer Gibson partially blocked a punt, and the Cats put seven more on the board with an Adams one-yard scamper. Danny Lockett's sack of Mark Maye caused a fumble, and the Cats cashed in with another Coston three-pointer for a 13-0 halftime lead.

It was more of the same in the third quarter. Arizona's Jeff Valder booted a 52-yard field goal to set an Aloha Bowl record. Then Cecil clobbered Jonathan Hall, and Jerry Beasley recovered the subsequent fumble at the Tar Heel 30. Jenkins found Jon Horton from 13 yards out for the quick score. Another Tar Heel fumble led to Greathouse's five-yard scoring run, and the Cats were in control.

1989 Copper Bowl - Arizona 17, North Carolina State 10

TUCSON, Ariz. - Arizona cashed in on big plays to defeat North Carolina State, 17-10, before an Arizona Stadium crowd of 37,237 in the inaugural Copper Bowl. The Wildcats were dominated statistically, 310 yards to 130 yards including a season-low 50 yards on the turf. However, two unlikely heroes, Olatide Ogunfiditimi and Scott Geyer, made the big plays to pull out the victory.

In the first stanza, neither team could sustain drives, but the Cats got on the board first as Ronald Veal found a double-covered Ogunfiditimi 37 yards down field for a 7-0 advantage. The second quarter proved more magical as Geyer, the Defensive MVP, intercepted Shane Montgomery and raced 85 yards for a score.

But the Wolfpack had a magic wand of their own as Montgomery, the Offensive MVP, capped a 56-yard, nine-play drive with a four-yard touchdown toss to fullback Todd Varn to cut the lead, 14-7. The half ended with a Gary Coston 34-yard field goal. Score: 17-7.

The second half included a Damon Hartman 43-yarder to inch the Pack closer, 17-10. However the New Year brought a little luck to the Cats, as Montgomery just missed a diving Chris Williams over the middle for the possible tying touchdown with 1:02 left.

Arizona Dick Tomey notched a victory in his first-ever bowl game in 13 years as a head coach. The Wildcats finished 8-4 on the season, and the Wolfpack closed at 7-5.

1990 Eagle Aloha Bowl - Syracuse 28, Arizona 0

HONOLULU, Hawaii - Marvin Graves ran for two touchdowns and passed for another score as Syracuse embarrassed Arizona, 28-0, in the ninth Eagle Aloha Bowl game in rain-drenched Aloha Stadium.

Graves scored on a pair of 5-yard runs and threw 47 yards to Terry Richardson and 6 yards to Chris Gedney as the Orangemen ran their record to 7-4-2. Arizona fell to 7-5. The shutout snapped Arizona's 214-game scoring streak, the second longest scoring streak in NCAA history. The last time the Cats were shut out was a 31-0 defeat by Arizona State in 1971.

The Orangemen drove 65 yards in 13 plays following the opening kickoff with Graves scoring on a quarterback draw from the five with 8:35 left in the first quarter.

Syracuse made it 14-0 with 2:22 remaining in the half as Richardson slipped behind the Cat pass defense for an easy 47-yard reception. Arizona tried to get back into the game in the third quarter, twice reaching the Orangemen 35-yard line. But both drives died, and Syracuse put the game away in the fourth quarter with two long marches.

Graves was selected as Syracuse's most valuable player, and cornerback Todd Burden, who had two interceptions and caused a fumble, was selected as Arizona's most valuable player. The week-long indement weather put a damper on many activities and caused many ticket purchasers to stay at home. There were 32,217 tickets sold but only 14,185 attended the game.

1992 Hancock Bowl - Baylor 20, Arizona 15

EL PASO, Texas - Arizona's defense lived up to its billing on all but two plays; those spelled doom as Baylor's big scoring passes helped beat the Cats, 20-15, in the John Hancock Bowl.

UA, which unleashed a no-huddle, wide-open passing attack, opened scoring with a Steve McLaughlin first-quarter field goal and increased the lead to 10-0 with a 65-yard scoring drive capped by a George Malauulu quarterback draw for seven yards mid-way through the second quarter.

BU halfback Brandell Jackson hit Melvin Bonner for a 61-yard strike three minutes later, but Arizona answered with a 14-play drive to set up another McLaughlin field goal and take a 13-7 halftime lead.

The Bears, held to 47 yards rushing, went to the air and struck again with another Bonner TD catch for 69 yards from QB J.J. Joe. Shortly into the fourth period, the Bears capitalized on two Arizona fumbles in UA territory and cashed them in for two Terry Weir field goals and a 20-13 lead.

With time running out, Arizona held BU deep on fourth-and-eight, and punter Rhett Delaney took an intentional safety at 0:31. A Chuck Levy 27-yard kickoff return put the Cats in decent shape, and UA drove to the Baylor 28. Two passes from Malauulu into the end zone were incomplete although Heath Bray nearly snagged the game winner on the first try.

1994 IBM OS/2 Fiesta Bowl - Arizona 29, Miami 0

TEMPE, Ariz. - Arizona's heralded "Desert Swarm" defense lived up to its name, and the Cats' offensive attack nearly named its own price as UA thumped No. 10 Miami, 29-0, in IBM OS/2 Fiesta Bowl XXIII. The convincing victory was the bowl's only shutout in its 23-game history.

UA ran for 257 yards and one touchdown, passed for 152 yards and two touchdowns, had three Steve McLaughlin field goals and held Miami to 182 yards in total offense. The Wildcats' swarming defense limited the Canes to Fiesta Bowl record-lows of 22 rushes and 35 yards, plus picked off three Miami passes and sacked the quarterback four times.

Tailback Chuck Levy ran for 142 yards including a 68-yard scoring dash and earned Fiesta Bowl offensive MVP honors, while defensive end Tedy Bruschi recorded a sack and earned defensive MVP honors for UA.

UA jumped to a quick lead on its first possession, driving 75 yards with Dan White throwing a 13-yard TD pass to Troy Dickey. Arizona never looked back.

The Canes' total offense was the second-lowest in Fiesta Bowl history, and the Arizona margin of victory was the second-largest in bowl history. Arizona enjoyed a time of possession advantage of 37:20 to 22:40 for Miami, another bowl record. Miami's frustration was typified by its first possession, starting at its own 37-yard line. Three plays later the Canes punted on fourth-and-41 from their own 6-yard line.

The game gave UA its first 10-victory season in 90 years of football, and its strong showing earned the Cats a No. 9 final ranking in the coaches poll and No. 10 in the media poll.

1994 Freedom Bowl - Utah 16, Arizona 13

ANAHEIM, Calif. - Utah used a 72-yard kickoff return to set up the winning touchdown, as the Utes upset No. 14 Arizona in the 11th annual Freedom Bowl, 16-13. A crowd of 27,477 watched as the Cats used a stifling defense to hold Utah to only 75 yards of total offense.

Arizona quarterback Dan White connected with Ontiwaun Carter from 23 yards out to give the Cats the early lead. After a White fumble deep in Arizona territory, Utah running back Charlie Brown scampered in from six yards out to tie the score.

After a 44-yard field goal by Steve McLaughlin, the Cats had first-and-goal at the Utah 2-yard line, but two dropped passes by Tim Thomas and then Lamar Lovett in the end zone forced the Cats to kick a 20-yard field goal. Late in the fourth quarter with Arizona leading 13-7, and Matt Peyton having to punt from his own end zone, the Cats gambled and took a safety as Peyton stepped out of the back of the end zone.

On the ensuing kickoff, Cal Beck returned the ball to the Arizona 5-yard line. The Wildcat defense held the Utes on three straight downs to set up a fourth-and-goal. Quarterback Mike McCoy scrambled out of the pocket and was in the grasp of Chuck Osborne but managed to get the pass off and found Kevin Dyson in the corner of the end zone for the winning score. A final UA drive ended in an interception.

The Cats recorded six sacks on the day, three of them by Tedy Bruschi, who earned Defensive MVP honors. Chuck Osborne had two sacks, and Sean Harris led the team with nine tackles.

1997 Insight.com Bowl - Arizona 20, New Mexico 14

TUCSON, Ariz. - Four Wildcat interceptions helped seal a hard-fought victory for Arizona over New Mexico in the ninth Insight.com Bowl, 20-14, before a crowd of 49,385 in the Cats' house, Arizona Stadium.

UA ran over the Lobos, using a 209-yard running attack featuring the quicker Trung Canidate and the bruising style of Kelvin Eafon on 43 of the team's 81 plays. Canidate was named the game's Most Outstanding Offensive Player with 97 yards and a touchdown on 24 carries, while Eafon earned the game's Most Valuable Player award for his 75 yards and two touchdowns on 19 totes. Thirteen of his rushes came in the fourth quarter when Arizona used ball possession to turn back New Mexico efforts at a game-winning touchdown.

Arizona picked off four passes by UNM's Graham Leigh—one in the first quarter by cornerback Chris McAlister, two in the third quarter by backup corner Kelvin Hunter and strong safety Rashee Johnson, and one in the fourth stanza by cornerback Kelly Malveaux, who returned the ball 44 yards just as the Lobos were crossing midfield. It was Malveaux' first interception of the year. Arizona outside linebacker Jimmy Sprotte earned the bowl's Most Outstanding Defensive Player honor with nine tackles including four hits for losses of 12 yards. Inside linebacker Marcus Bell was the Cats' leading tackler with 10.

Arizona coach Dick Tomey gave fifth-year senior QB Brady Batten the start in the game. An injury early in the year cost him a shot at the every-day spot. He played all but the fourth quarter, when the nominal No. 1 guy for most of the year, Ortege Jenkins, came on.

1998 Culligan Holiday Bowl - Arizona 23, Nebraska 20

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - Arizona's defense held the storied Nebraska option rushing attack to 87 net yards, and the No. 5-ranked Wildcats cranked up some tough-guy rushing of their own to score 14 fourth-quarter points and beat the No. 14 Cornhuskers, 23-20, in the 21st annual Culligan Holiday Bowl.

The Cats secured the school's finest record in history and earned enough acclaim through their efforts in the game — the most watched of any college bowl game in ESPN history — to earn a final No. 4 ranking in both the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN polls.

Unanimous All-America cornerback Chris McAlister cemented his reputation with an outstanding effort, intercepting two passes, one which turned the Huskers back on their final come-back try with less than four minutes remaining. He also had a 78-yard reverse punt return called back because of a questionable blocking call against Derek Hall.

Arizona trailed 13-9 at the half, and both teams struggled through five possessions in the third quarter before UA's Dennis Northcutt gave the Cats some decent field position with a 16-yard punt return to start a 10-play scoring drive. Trung Canidate rushed five times for 37 yards in the span, and Keith Smith completed passes of five yards to Northcutt and Paul Shields and topped it off with a 15-yard strike to Brad Brennan for the score.

Nebraska answered, though, and reclaimed the lead at 20-16 with an eight-play, 88-yard drive, almost exclusively through the air.

2014 Arizona Football Media Guide

With 10 minutes remaining, Smith opened UA's next drive with a seven-yard pass to Shields, then the Cats ran the ball eight straight times for the nine-play, 68-yard drive which netted the final score on a Kelvin Eafon one-yard plunge. Smith had runs of 20, eight and eight yards to set up the score.

UA halted the Huskers with McAlister's second pick and then later used enough clock with a first down to force Nebraska to get the ball back with 34 seconds remaining. One short completion and three incompletions, and the game was over.

Canidate ran for 101 yards on 22 carries. Smith, who completed 11-of-19 passing for 143 yards and ran for 25 more, was named Holiday Bowl Offensive MVP. UA's Mark McDonald, who was 8-17 in field goals during the regular season, was a big key with a perfect 3-for-3 day, including a career-long 48-yarder. NU outgained the Cats, but UA won the turnover battle and kicking game.

2008 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl - Arizona 31, BYU 21

LAS VEGAS, Nev. - Arizona capped its best season in nine years with a solid effort against No. 17 Brigham Young, beating the Cougars 31-21 in the Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl.

The Cats took the first lead, set up by a 71-yard pass from Willie Tuitama to Terrell Turner, added a Jason Bondzio 31-yard field goal a third of the way into the second quarter.

Tuitama fumbled a low snap on the first play of the second half and BYU took a 14-10 lead four minutes into the frame with the gift 27-yard drive.

After that, Arizona stalled once, missing a 3rd-and-1 opportunity, but turned right around for a defensive three-and-out and two plays later Tuitama's 37-yard pass to Delashaun Dean struck put the Cats back in the lead.

The Cougs fought back with a 12-play, 39-yard drive, but missed a long field goal attempt. Tuitama hit successive passes of 19 and 17 yards, and after a five-yard gain by Nic Grigsby fired one down the seam to a streaking Chris Gronkowski for a 27-yard score, making it 24-14 at the end of the period.

Five minutes into the final period, Wildcat cornerback Marquis Hundley manned up and intercepted BYU's Max Hall in the end zone, taking it out to the UA 18 yard-line. Tuitama led a seven-play, 82-yard drive, sparked by a 27-yard run by Grigsby and a 23-yard pass to Turner, and then ran it in himself from six yards out for a 31-14 lead. Again the Cougars showed some of their 17th-ranked gumption, using eight Hall passes and two of his runs to get into the end zone quickly, and recovered an ensuing inside kick at the UA 48 yard-line. Hall drove BYU 28 yards, but Mitch Payne's field goal attempt banged off the left upright with 2:07 left.

The Cats ran the ball four times and then Tuitama scootched a three-yard pass to Mike Thomas on the final play of the game, giving the latter the Pac-10 career receiving record with his 259th reception as time expired. Dean led UA with seven catches for 88 yards to help Tuitama complete 24 of 35 throws for 325 yards and the game's MVP award.

2009 Pacific Life Holiday Bowl - Nebraska 33, Arizona 0

SAN DIEGO, Calif. - No. 20 Nebraska showed it was more than two ranking spots ahead of No. 22 Arizona by throttling the Wildcats, 33-0, in the Holiday Bowl.

After developing a reputation for high-scoring games and crazy finishes, the bowl got the first shutout in its 32-year history. Zac Lee threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to Niles Paul in the third quarter to highlight the win, but it was only one moment in a dominating effort.

The coaches expected a defensive game, and the Huskers delivered, earning their first shutout in 46 bowl appearances, plus held UA to 109 net yards. Arizona quarterback Nick Foles was harassed all night and had one of his toughest outings of the year, finishing with nine completions in 30 attempts, for a miniscule 48 yards.

The Wildcats had the ball fourth-and-3 at the Nebraska 8-yard line with 1:41 to go, and eschewed a field goal, with safety P.J. Smith batting down Foles' pass to preserve the shutout. Nebraska free safety Matt O'Hanlon intercepted Foles on the third play from scrimmage and returned it 37 yards to the Arizona 5. Lee scored on a four-yard run two plays later. It was the fastest score in Holiday Bowl history, coming just 75 seconds in.

Nebraska (10-4) got its first 10-win season since 2003. Nebraska's Alex Henery set a Holiday Bowl record with four field goals, from 47, 50, 41 and 22 yards. Arizona finished 8-5. NU coach Bo Pelini earned bragging rights in Youngstown, Ohio, where he and UA coach Mike Stoops grew up and played at Cardinal Mooney High.

2010 Valero Alamo Bowl - Oklahoma State 36, Arizona 10

SAN ANTONIO, Texas - No. 14 Oklahoma State kept Arizona's offense out of the end zone and used four Wildcat turnovers to spoil the Pac-10's first game in the bowl since its early years.

Arizona outgained the Cowboys 370 to 312 yards, holding the vaunted OSU offense some 200 yards under its average. After an initial stop, however, Bug Wright fumbled the first punt of the game and gave OSU a short field for a 26-yard drive and the lead. The Cats were stopped on their next possession and OSU's Brandon Weeden connected on a 71-yard toss to Justin Blackmon to add to the lead.

UA answered with a 63-yard drive to cut it to 14-7. After an exchange of possession a short UA punt set the Cowboys up at midfield and OSU settled for the first of three Dan Bailey FGs. On Arizona's ensuing drive, Nick Foles was intercepted by Markelle Martin and returned 62 yards for a score. Bailey missed the kick and it was 23-. UA took the ball inside the OSU 40 yard-line three times but could not score before halftime.

UA showed some life with an Alex Zendejas field goal in the third quarter to make it 23-10 but OSU answered with its longest drive of the night to make it 30-10. Another Foles' interception near midfield set up a second Bailey field goal. Zendejas missed a 34-yarder minutes later in the fourth period, and Bailey knocked one home again for the final score. UA drove to the OSU 9 yard-line but could not cash in on 3rd- and 4th-and-1.

The Cats had 25 first downs to 17 by the Cowboys, held a 15-minute edge in time of possession but were one for three in the red zone, were sacked five times (to zero for UA), and suffered three interceptions and the fumbled punt for -4 turnover margin.

Receiver David Douglas took home the Fred Jacoby Sportsmanship Award for a 6-catch, 91-yard evening while the bowl offensive MVP award went to Blackmon for eight receptions for 112 yards and two scores, and the defensive MVP honor went to OSU defensive back Martin for his key INT.

2012 Gildan New Mexico Bowl - Arizona 49, Nevada 48

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - With a last-minute touchdown and a successful inside kick recovery, Arizona football pulled out a victory over Nevada, 49-48, at the Gildan New Mexico in Albuquerque, N.M. Saturday's game ties the largest comeback in UA history (21 points). Senior quarterback Matt Scott was named Offensive MVP and junior linebacker Marquis Flowers was named Defensive MVP.

Nevada took a 48-35 lead with 1:48 to play. Arizona answered back with a two-yard Scott touchdown pass to sophomore Austin Hill with a good point after attempt to cut the score to 48-42 with 0:46 to play. Senior John Bonano converted a perfect inside kick attempt with the recovery from Flowers. The Wildcats went on to score the winning touchdown on a two-yard pass to sophomore Tyler Slavin from Scott with 0:19 to play. Flowers then immediately secured the victory with an interception on Nevada's final offensive possession.

Sophomore Ka'Deem Carey ran for 172 yards on 28 carries and three touchdowns. He now tallies 1,929 yards on the season, to continue to lead the nation in rushing. Carey is now UA's school record holder for rushing TDs in season with 23, including his three against Nevada on Saturday. He also set the Arizona bowl game record of rushing yards in a game (172). The previous bowl game record was 142 yards by Chuck Levy against Miami in the 1994 Fiesta Bowl.

In his final game as a Wildcat, Scott threw for 382 yards and three TDs on 28-of-47 pass attempts with two interceptions. He also rushed for 21 yards on six carries and one touchdown. Hill led the UA receivers with eight catches for 175 yards and two touchdowns. Saturday's game marks his fifth 100-yard performance of the season and the sixth of his career.

True freshman linebacker C.J. Dozier paced the defense with 15 tackles, nine solo and six assisted. Junior Shaquille Richardson collected his first pick of the season and the seventh of his career. Junior Jake Fischer recovered his fourth fumble of the season against the Wolf Pack. Flowers also recorded 10 tackles. UA had five true freshmen playing on defense during various points of the game: Keoni Bush-Loo, Dozier, Vince Miles, William Parks and Wayne Capers Jr.

Today's game marked the final in the careers of 20 Arizona seniors including team captains Trace Bisken, Kyle Quinn and Scott. Arizona ends the season with a 8-5 record and a bowl trip in head coach Rich Rodriguez's first season at the helm of the Wildcat program.

2013 AdvoCare V100 Bowl - Arizona 42, Boston College 19

SHREVEPORT, La. - Arizona football defeated Boston College, 42-19, in the AdvoCare V100 Bowl Game in record-breaking fashion, Monday, at Independence Stadium. Senior quarterback B.J. Denker was named Offensive MVP and sophomore William Parks was named Defensive MVP.

The victory gave UA eight wins for a second-consecutive year, marking the first back-to-back eight-win seasons since 2008-09. Along with bowl game records, multiple school records were also broken for the Wildcats.

The six Wildcat touchdowns tied the Bowl record for most touchdowns. The Wildcats also recorded the most first downs in the bowl's history with 49.

The Wildcats' offensive clinic was led by Denker's 275 passing yards. True freshman Nate Phillips had 193 receiving yards and recorded the first 100-yard receiving game for Arizona on the season. He also broke the school record for most receiving yards in a bowl game as well as most receiving yards in a game by a freshman in school history.

Ka'Deem Carey finished off his junior season with 16-straight 100-plus yard games with his 169-yard performance. As well, he has officially become the all-time all-purpose leader in yardage. Prior to Carey, the record was 5,392 yards, held by Dennis Northcutt.

On defense, the Wildcats held the Eagles to just two touchdowns and two field goals. Jake Fischer tied his career-high tackles with 14.

2014 Arizona Football Media Guide

Arizona Stadium

Arizona Stadium (56,029) is one of the finest playing facilities in the country and was recently upgraded through one of the most significant improvements in its history. The home of the Wildcats, Arizona Stadium reflects the history and tradition of Arizona football and the overall growth of the University of Arizona campus.

The Lowell-Stevens Football Facility, which opened to the public in August 2013, is a reflection of that growth and completes a dynamic shift in the Arizona football culture as it becomes the centerpiece of the program on the north end of Arizona Stadium. Supported by private funds including significant leadership gifts from David and Edith Lowell and from Jeff and Sharon Stevens, the $72.3 million project provides the Wildcats with one of the premier football facilities in the nation.

The facility is a four-floor operations center with strength and conditioning, sports medicine, coaches' offices, locker rooms, meeting rooms, equipment and facility service areas. The structure encloses the north end of the stadium and creates a full bowl with nearly 4,000 premium spectator seats, including a donor lounge with outdoor seating. Additionally, stairways and elevator towers for the concourse connect the structure to the existing east and west stadium sections. Restrooms, amenity areas and a cafeteria also serve fans, campus and the community.

Spectators in the revamped north end of the stadium have a front and center view of the state-of-the-art video board beyond the opposite end zone. In August 2011, Arizona completed work on the video board for the south end zone. The new video board measures 113' wide by 47' high - 6.5 times larger than the previous board - and is one of the largest in all of college sports.

Indeed, the recent upgrades are the latest in the evolution of Arizona Stadium over the years. Built in 1928 with 7,000 seats located on the west side between the end zones, the stadium has grown into a 57,000-seat facility that combines tradition with modern conveniences, remaining one of the top venues for its spectators. Every seat features an uncluttered view of the playing surface, and more than half of the seats provide sweeping vistas of the campus and nearby city skyline, as well as the Santa Catalina Mountains.

Since playing and winning their first game on Oct. 12, 1929 (35-0 vs. California Tech), Arizona football teams have played 481 games in the stadium, 381 of them at twilight or night, winning 275, losing 174 and tying 12. The team has never failed to win at least one home game in a season and has gone undefeated nine times, the last time coming with a 6-0 record in 1993.

As Arizona football grew, so did the facilities surrounding it. In 1989, a $6.3 million structure housing the media, skyboxes and loge seating was added to accommodate increased interest in the football program. Two other non-football features of the stadium are notable - UA's renowned Tree Ring Research Lab on the west side, and the Steward Telescope Laboratory on the east side - two of the nation's most venerated research facilities.

In 1938, seating was added between the 25-yard lines on the east side to boost capacity to 10,000. Nine years later, the end zones were filled, and in 1950, the horseshoe at the south end was completed, giving the facility a capacity of 22,671 seats.

Expansion on the west side in 1965 provided 10,000 new seats, along with an 80-foot, multilevel press box. The two-tier addition to the east stands, adding 17,000 seats in 1976, was selected as one of six outstanding architectural projects in the Rocky Mountain States for 1977 by the AIA.

Permanent north-end bleacher seating for 4,500 was added in 1988, however, it would be removed for the new north-end project. The completion of the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility gives Arizona Stadium a lower bowl configuration for the first time, a 360-degree experience for Wildcat fans.

Pac-12 Conference, The Conference of Champions

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the Conference ushered in a new era on July 1, 2011, officially becoming the Pac-12 Conference with the additions of the University of Colorado and University of Utah.

Just 27 days after the Conference officially changed its name, Commissioner Larry Scott announced the creation of the Pac-12 Networks on July 27, 2011, solidifying a landmark television deal and putting the Conference on the forefront of collegiate athletics. The Networks, including one national network, six regional networks, and a robust digital network marked the first-ever integrated media company owned by a college conference. In addition, the "TV Everywhere" rights allow fans to access Pac-12 Networks outside the home on any digital device, including smartphones and tablet computers.

In 2011, the Pac-12 also launched its Globalization Initiative to proactively promote the Conference and member institutions through student-athlete exchanges and sport. In its first three years, Pac-12 student-athletes have enjoyed unique cultural and athletic experiences in China, fielding full university and Pac-12 all-star teams in women's volleyball and men's basketball, with plans to play the first-ever men's basketball regular season game in China in November 2015, and the Conference and its member schools have gained significant brand exposure for the future and set a foundation for growth.

On the field, the Pac-12 rises above the rest, upholding its tradition as the "Conference of Champions," claiming an incredible 131 NCAA team titles since 1999-2000, including 10 in 2013-14. That is an average of nearly nine championships per academic year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success, with championships coming in 28 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led or tied the nation in NCAA Championships in 48 of the last 54 years, the only exceptions being in 1980-81, 1988-89, 1990-91 and 1995-96 when the Conference finished second, and only twice finished third in 1998-99 and 2004-05.

For the ninth-consecutive year, the Pac-12 had the most NCAA titles or tied for the most of any conference in the country, winning at least six every year since 2000-01. No other conference has won double-digit NCAA crowns in a single year, the Pac-12 doing so seven times, including a record 14 in 1996-97.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 was the first conference to reach 400 championships in 2010-11. With the inclusion of Colorado and Utah, the Conference surpassed another major milestone, with league teams capturing 450 titles, outdistancing the next conference by nearly 200. In all, Conference teams have won 469 NCAA Championships (287 men's, 154 women's, 28 combined).

Pac-12 members have won 287 NCAA team championships on the men's side, 83 more than the next closest conference. Men's NCAA crowns have come at a phenomenal rate for the Pac-12 - 16 basketball titles by six schools (more than any other conference), 54 tennis titles, 46 outdoor track & field crowns, and 28 baseball titles. Pac-12 members have won 25 of 45 NCAA titles in volleyball, 40 of 45 in water polo, 28 in skiing, and 24 in swimming & diving national championships.

Individually, the Conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA individual champions. Over 2,000 (2,167) individual crowns have been won by Pac-12 student-athletes over the years with 1,485 by male student-athletes.

On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 33 years ago, Pac-12 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 24 occasions, including 14-consecutive years from 2000-2014. Overall, the Pac-12 has captured 154 NCAA women's titles, easily outdistancing the SEC, which is second with 93. Pac-12 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 23 softball titles, 21 tennis crowns, 14 volleyball titles, 15 of the last 25 trophies in golf, and 13 in swimming & diving.

Pac-12 women student-athletes shine nationally on an individual basis, as well, having captured an unmatched 682 NCAA individual crowns, an average of nearly 21 championships per season.

The Pac-12's excellence is further proven in the annual Learfield Sports Directors' Cup competition, the prestigious award that honors the best overall collegiate athletics programs in the country. Stanford continued its remarkable run and won its unprecedented 20th-consecutive Directors' Cup in 2013-14. Seven Pac-12 member institutions ranked among the top-27 Division I programs, the most of any conference and five were in the top 20: No. 1 Stanford, No. 7 UCLA, No. 8 USC, No. 15 Oregon, No. 20 California, No. 26 Arizona and No. 27 Arizona State. At least five member institutions have been ranked in the top 20 in all but one year of the Director's Cup program, with seven appearing in the top 20 on five different occasions (1998, 2001, 2003, 2005 and 2006).

2013-14 Review

The Conference's 10 national titles came in the form of six men's and four women's crowns. Six different league schools claimed NCAA titles and, of the seven NCAA institutions to have won multiples titles, three were from the Pac-12. No other conference in the country had more than one team win multiple NCAA titles.

Oregon was one of three teams in the country to win three NCAA titles this academic season. The Ducks took home the hardware in men's outdoor track & field, the program's first team title in the sport since 1984, and swept the men's and women's indoor national championships. It is the first time ever UO has won three NCAA titles in one academic year. An additional four teams in the country had two NCAA titles, including USC and UCLA. The Trojans continue to dominate the sports of men's water polo and men's tennis, winning a sixth-straight title in the pool and a fifth in six years on the court. The Bruins won the Conference's third-ever women's soccer title and the program's first, while also taking home the women's tennis crown.

Colorado kicked off the year for the Conference winning its fourth NCAA men's cross country title. California was first in men's swimming, the program's third national championship in four years, and Stanford won its third women's water polo crown in four years, extending the school's streak of at least one NCAA team championship to 38-consecutive years.

In addition to the 10 national championships, the Pac-12 also had runners-up in six NCAA Championship events: women's cross country (Arizona), women's swimming (Stanford), women's rowing (California), men's volleyball (Stanford) and women's water polo (UCLA). Overall, the Conference had 32 teams finish in the top four at 22 NCAA Championship events, including an all-Pac-12 women's water polo final four.

Participation in the postseason was a common occurrence for the Pac-12 in 2013-14. Of the 22 sports sponsored by the Conference, 19 witnessed at least half its teams participating in NCAA or other postseason action. The men sent 79 of a possible 100 teams into the postseason (79.4 percent), while the women sent 83 of a possible 115 teams (72.2 percent).

For the second-straight year, a record number of league teams participated in college football bowl games. After earning a then-league record eight bowl bids in 2012, Conference teams bested that with nine teams making bowl trips in 2013, producing a 6-3 record. A Pac-12 record five teams posted 10 or more wins during the season, a feat no other league in the country accomplished. Stanford represented the Pac-12 in the Rose Bowl for the second-consecutive year by virtue of a 38-14 win over Arizona State at the Pac-12 Championship Game. ASU went on to participate in the National University Holiday Bowl. Also joining the Cardinal and Sun Devils in postseason play were Oregon (Valero Alamo), UCLA (Hyundai Sun Bowl), USC (Royal Purple Las Vegas Bowl), Washington (Fight Hunger Bowl), Washington State (Gildan New Mexico Bowl), Arizona (AdvoCare V100 Bowl) and Oregon State (Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl). Six Pac-12 teams appeared in the final Associated Press poll marking the sixth time in league history that six teams were in the final ranking. The teams in the top 25 were: Oregon (9th), Stanford (11th), UCLA (16th), USC (19th), Arizona State (21) and Washington (25th). Also receiving votes was Arizona. It was also a record-breaking season for Pac-12 men's basketball with a league-record eight teams posting 20 wins during the 2013-14 campaign. Arizona captured its 13th regular-season crown, while UCLA won its fourth Pac-12 Tournament title at the MGM Grand Garden Arena in Las Vegas, its first since 2008. The highly-competitive Pac-12 season was rewarded with a record-tying six teams (Arizona, Arizona State, Colorado, Oregon, Stanford, UCLA) earning NCAA Tournament bids. The Wildcats obtained one of the four No. 1 seeds in the postseason tournament, the Conference's first since 2008. Pac-12 teams went 8-6 in tournament play, with UA, Stanford and UCLA reaching the Sweet Sixteen, while the Wildcats were just one point short of the NCAA Final Four, advancing to the Elite Eight. The eight NCAA Tournament wins were the most by the league since it posted an identical 8-6 mark in 2008. An additional three teams participated in postseason action with California and Utah receiving NIT bids and Oregon State playing in the CBI.

Pac-12 women's basketball also saw tremendous success with five teams earning NCAA Tournament bids, the most since 2006. USC captured its first-ever Pac-12 Tournament title, securing its first NCAA Tournament bid since 2006. Stanford claimed its 14th-consecutive regular-season crown, then advanced to the NCAA Final Four for the sixth time in seven years. Its trip to the national semifinals was also the seventh-straight year a Pac-12 team has advanced that far. Oregon State also ended a long NCAA Tournament drought, earning its first invitation to the Big Dance since 1996; California made a third-straight trip to the NCAA Tournament; and Arizona State returned to the postseason event after a two-year absence. Colorado, Oregon, Washington and Washington State also all participated in the WNIT, making it the most-ever teams to participate in the postseason in the history of the league. Three teams ended the season ranked in the final Associated Press poll: Stanford was No. 6, Cal was No. 24 and USC was No. 25, its first appearance in the final poll in 20 years.

Pac-12 volleyball also recorded an unprecedented season with a league-record nine teams earning NCAA Tournament bids, also the most in the country, with three receiving a top-16 seed. After winning the Conference regular-season crown for the first time since 2005, Washington advanced to its first national semifinal since 2006 marking the 14th time in 16 years a Pac-12 team has advanced that far. With 14-straight years of at least six Conference teams earning NCAA bids, the Pac-12 has dominated the sport, winning a record 14 NCAA volleyball titles since 1982, including 12 in the last 23 years.

Oregon State won its second-straight Pac-12 baseball crown and was the No. 1 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament. Five teams altogether earned postseason bids with Arizona State, Oregon, Stanford and Washington joining the Beavers in the tournament. UW made its return to the NCAA Tournament after a 10-year absence, while the Cardinal used a walk-off home run to advance to the Super Regionals before falling to eventual national champion Vanderbilt. The Pac-12 has, by far, won the most baseball national titles of any conference in the country, claiming 28 titles dating back to 1947, including two of the last three when the league had back-to-back champions in 2012 (Arizona) and 2013 (UCLA).

Another sport in which the Pac-12 Conference has dominated is softball where league teams have claimed 23 NCAA titles in the 33-year history of the championship. Pac-12 teams captured an unprecedented nine in a row from 1988-1997, then most recently claimed six-straight from 2006-11. Five teams participated in the tournament in 2014, with OREGON earning the overall No. 1 seed and advancing to the NCAA Women's College World Series. Joining the Ducks in the tournament were third-seeded UCLA, No. 9-seed Arizona State, No. 11-seed Arizona and No. 12-seed Washington as the Bruins, Wildcats and Huskies went as far as the Super Regionals. The Conference has had at least three teams in the NCAA Tournament every year since the league began sponsoring the sport in 1987. Before earning the No. 1-overall seed, UO claimed its second-straight Pac-12 crown.

Pac-12 Conference History

The roots of the Pac-12 Conference date back 99 years to December 2, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland, Ore. The original membership consisted of four schools - the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All still are charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916 and, one year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the league, with Stanford University following in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to eight teams with the admission of the University of Southern California (USC) and the University of Idaho. In 1924, the University of Montana joined the league roster, and in 1928, the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-member league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45 when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. During that time, the league's first commissioner was named. Edwin N. Atherton was Commissioner in 1940 and was succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt in 1944. In 1950, Montana resigned from the Conference and the PCC continued as a nine-team Conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and the Athletic Association of Western Universities (AAWU) was formed with Thomas J. Hamilton was appointed Commissioner of the new league. The original AAWU membership included California, Stanford, USC, UCLA and Washington. Washington State joined the membership in 1962, while Oregon and Oregon State joined in 1964. Under Hamilton's watch, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted in 1968. In 1971, Wiles Hallock took over as Commissioner of the Pac-8.

Ten years later, on July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted to the league and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the league took on a new look, expanding to include 10 women's sports. Since then, the Conference has been considered the premiere league in women's athletics, securing the most NCAA titles in women's sports of any conference nearly every year.

Thomas C. Hansen was named the Commissioner of the Pac-10 in 1983, a role he would hold for 26 years until 2009, and was succeeded by current Commissioner Larry Scott, who took on the new role in July 2009.

During the 2010-11 academic year, the University of Colorado accepted its invitation to join the Pac-12 on June 11, 2010, and on June 17, 2010, the University of Utah agreed to join the Conference. The Buffaloes and Utes officially became the 11th and 12th members of the Conference on July 1, 2011, the first additions to the league since 1978.

It was during that 2010-11 academic year that Scott helped deliver monumental changes that transformed the Conference into a modern 12-team league. In addition to expanding to 12 teams, member institutions agreed to equal revenue sharing for the first time in the Conference's history, created two divisions - the North and the South, for football only and established a Football Championship Game for the first time ever. He also secured a landmark media rights deal that dramatically increased national exposure and revenue for each school, establishing the Pac-12 Networks and Pac-12 Digital Network that guaranteed enhanced exposure across all sports.

Currently, the Pac-12 sponsors 11 men's sports and 11 women's sports. Additionally, the Conference is a member of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and three women's sports.

The Pac-12 Conference offices are located in the heart of San Francisco in the SOMA district.
